HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WINDSOR

On July 1, 1963, the new, non-denominational University of Windsor inherited an educational complex founded in 1857 as Assumption College, developed since 1870 by the Basilian Fathers (the Congregation of St. Basil), and expanded to Assumption University in 1953. The transition from an historic Roman Catholic university to a non-denominational institution was unprecedented.

The new institution included Assumption University as a federated member, operating residences on campus for men and women and holding in abeyance its degree-granting powers except in the graduate Faculty of Theology. All of the facilities and teaching faculty of Assumption University were absorbed in the University of Windsor, as were those of its federated, non-denominational Essex College, which ceased to exist.

Heritage

Assumption College opened its doors on February 10, 1857, largely through the efforts of Rev. Pierre Point, S.J., pastor of Assumption Parish in Sandwich, established as a mission in 1748 and made a parish in 1767, the oldest in Canada west of Montreal. M. Theodule Girardot was the first instructor. The College was incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the Province of Canada which received Royal Assent August 16, 1858, during the Superiorship of Rev. Joseph Malbos, a Basilian who guided it for one year. Successively, the College was directed by Jesuits, Benedictines and secular clergy until the Basilians returned in 1870.

During the early years, the curriculum consisted of classical and commercial courses providing a complete high school and Arts course, primarily designed to prepare students for theological seminaries, although many alumni entered business and professional spheres. In 1919, Assumption affiliated with Western University, London, Ontario (now the University of Western Ontario), as an integral part of the latter's Faculty of Arts and Science with a broadened curriculum including General and Honours Courses in Arts and Science leading to Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees, graduate work in Philosophy leading to the Master of Arts degree, and pre-professional programs such as pre-engineering, pre-medicine and pre-law.

From 1934 to 1962, Holy Names College, conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, enabled Assumption to become co-educational. Then the Sisters disbanded the College, while continuing to teach at the University, and Assumption took over its women's residence which was re-named Electa Hall.

University Development

On July 1, 1953, Assumption ended its affiliation with the University of Western Ontario and obtained its own university powers through an Act of the Ontario Legislature. In 1954 it was admitted to full membership in the National Conference of Canadian Universities and Colleges, to the University Matriculation Board of Ontario, and to the Association of Universities of the British Commonwealth.

In 1956, the College became Assumption University by an Act of the Ontario Legislature, and accepted as an affiliate the non-denominational Essex College, incorporated in 1954, which assumed responsibility for the Faculty of Applied Science, the Schools of Business Administration and Nursing, and the Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Geology and Geography, Mathematics, and Physics. Holy Redeemer College, national seminary of the Redemptorist Fathers, located three miles off campus, also affiliated. In 1957, Canterbury College, offering courses in Philosophy, Religious Knowledge and Medieval History, became the first Anglican college in the world to affiliate with a Roman Catholic university.

Recent Expansion

The University of Windsor was incorporated by the Ontario Legislature on December 19, 1962, accepting Assumption University in federation. During 1963 and 1964, affiliation agreements were made with Holy Redeemer College, Canterbury College and the new Iona College (United Church of Canada), the latter two planning to sponsor student residences and chaplains. A notable innovation in 1963-64 was the establishment of an inter-denominational, undergraduate Department of Theology, now offering courses in three theologies (Anglican, Roman Catholic and United Church), but available to others as the need arises.

The University of Windsor assumed control of the campus on July 1, 1963, and became a member of the International Association of Universities in June, 1964. Rev. E. C. LeBel, C.S.B., first President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Windsor, was succeeded on July 1, 1964, by Dr. J. F. Leddy, who had been Vice-President (Academic) of the University of Saskatchewan.

A general expansion of the Faculty of Graduate Studies was accelerated in the academic year, 1964-65. The School of Business Administration became the Faculty of Business Administration in 1965. The Faculty of Law was established in 1967.

A new language laboratory is the largest of its kind in Canada. A new School of Physical and Health Education offers an Honours B.P.H.E. program. Experimental closed-circuit TV lectures were started, and a new Biology Building was opened in 1966.

The department of social work, established in 1966, was raised to the status of school in 1968.

A new athletic field with an "all-weather" track was constructed; and the south wing of Windsor Hall, to accommodate the psychology department and other branches of the humanities and social sciences, as well as a new, ten-storey men's residence were completed. A new School of Physical and Health Education building is scheduled for completion in the spring of 1968.

I. CAMPUS LIFE

The University of Windsor's formal academic program is complemented by a co-curriculum intended to broaden the moral, social, and physical capabilities of the students. Through this cooperative effort, all are given an opportunity to derive maximum personal benefit from and to contribute to the university community.

The main responsibility for the effecting of this program is that of the office of Student Affairs, which is charged with the general supervision of the co-curricular interests and activities of the students in so far as they pertain to campus life. This includes counselling, social and cultural activities, conduct, discipline, placement and housing. The Student Affairs Office personnel work in cooperation with student organizations to insure their just representation within the structure of the university and to maintain an academic community, governed by reasonable modes of conduct, dedicated to the development of enlightened and responsible citizens.

The University Centre

The co-curriculum has its nucleus in the University Centre which is adjacent to the major classroom structures. The Centre provides facilities which include the resident students' cafeteria (until such time as the central food service building is completed), a formal lounge, a music and magazine lounge for informal moments, a snack bar where students and faculty can mingle, and a walk-through art gallery for the presentation of a series of exhibitions of the plastic arts. All of this, as well as most of the University's fine art collection, is on the main floor. The ground floor has a well-stocked University Store, supplying books and sundries, as well as women's locker rooms adjoining the pool, and a commuters' lunch area whose windows, looking out on sunken fountain gardens, have earned it the name 'The Grotto'. On the Centre's second floor is the Students' Administrative Council Office, the Student Press Office, another lunch area overlooking the landscaped mall, and a number of flexible meeting rooms for small groups. The Ambassador Auditorium and the Faculty-Alumni dining room and lounge provide a fine northern view of old Assumption Church whose Gothic profile is framed by the towers of the Ambassador Bridge, connecting Southern Ontario with Detroit, Michigan. The Auditorium accommodates banquets, dances and musical events, as well as frequent meetings.

The University Library

The present four-storey library, soon to be expanded even more, provides shelving for over 350,000 volumes, and has a seating capacity of five hundred. The open stack arrangement permits the readers ready access to books, as well as study carrells in the stack area. The main lobby space and check-out system encourage ease of circulation.

Student Government

Student organizations and activities are a vital part of life at the University of Windsor. The initiative in these organizations and the direction of their activities are in the hands of the students and are regulated in the main through their student government of which all undergraduate students are members. The students' administrative council works with all other organizations to maintain a co-operative, orderly, constructive college community life. Faculty advice and assistance is readily available to all student organizations.

Clubs

Interest groups and clubs employ the facilities of the University Centre for their organizational base, and here are to be found debates, ethnic interests, and club meetings for those who express an interest in such things as skiing, flying, chess, or French speech and culture. The campus organizations provide social, political, religious, cultural and recreational opportunities and experiences. For students having special abilities and interests there are departmental clubs, national and local organizations, and inter-collegiate teams. None have restricted membership.

The Graduate Student Society

The Graduate Student Society was recognized on January 30th, 1964, and is intended to serve as the consolidating body for the views of the post-graduate students. In addition an inter-disciplinary exchange encourages the gathering together of graduate students from the various faculties for educational and social activities making them aware of the full range of academic, cultural and social opportunities available through the University. The Society sponsors lectures by specialists in varied fields of graduate interest with the intention of promoting inter-disciplinary awareness and understanding.

Publications

Students interested in journalism or creative writing can find expression in the weekly newspaper, the "Lance," the "Ambassador" yearbook, and the annual literary magazine, "Generation."

Athletics

Realizing the value of a balanced regimen of exercise and play as part of the total education process, the University fosters an athletic program which is both recreational and competitive. Approximately eighty per cent of the students participate in extensive intramural programs for both men and women involving some eighteen sports. While under the supervision of the Director of Athletics, these programs are operated by the students who participate. For those who excel athletically there is opportunity for competition within the Ontario-Quebec Athletic Association.

Special Events

Each year brings an increase in the variety and number of special events scheduled on campus or through campus organizations. The well-established Christian Culture Series, conducted by the federated Assumption University, brings outstanding lecturers and artists to the area throughout the academic year. A feature of annual wide-spread interest is the Canadian-American Relations Seminar which brings together internationally known personages from government, university and business in Canada and the United States to discuss matters of mutual concern and interest. A bright sidelight of the Seminar is the Student Seminar in which similar interests are expounded from other points of reference.

The Music and the Drama Departments offer programs to please both students and members of the local community.

II. STUDENT SERVICES

Counselling

To help in the achievement of fuller personal development, of intelligent career choices, and of intellectual freedom and satisfaction within the challenging educational framework, the University provides students with counselling services commensurate with their particular needs: educational, vocational, moral, social or religious.

Personal

Students are invited to consult the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women for assistance in personal matters, and for counsel related directly to their University community.

Financial

Consultation regarding financial assistance, with particular reference to awards, student loan funds, and the Canada Student Loan, may be obtained from the Awards Office. The University recognizes that some students must supplement their income by part-time employment during the academic year; but unless such employment is kept to a minimum both health and academic standing could suffer. Since long hours of outside work usually reduce the benefit one can derive from the total university experience, it is possible that some students will be required to take a reduced study program. A person in such circumstances might be better advised to postpone his higher education until he can afford to devote full time to the many important facets of university life which contribute to the true educational pattern.

Academic

Each first year student will have an opportunity to consult with a faculty member from an appropriate department for advice on academic matters, and for periodic counselling.

Religious

Although the University is non-sectarian in its support of campus religious life, it is aware of the importance of ethical and moral influences in the development of the individual. Students, therefore, have access to the spiritual counsel of chaplains representing various denominations.

Office of Psychological Services

A professional staff of licensed psychologists, a psychiatrist and a sociologist, are available for consultation and technical assistance in personal and vocational guidance.

Health and Insurance

Medical Office — The University has a medical office, with a physician and nurse, to advise and counsel students who are in need of care, therapy or hospitalization. A number of first-aid stations, for the treatment of minor injuries, are distributed throughout the University buildings.

Accident Insurance — All full time day students are covered by a blanket accident insurance policy administered by the University. This covers students for actual expenses incurred as a result of an accident.

Health and Hospitalization — Students are urged to enrol in the group medical and hospitalization plan available through the Office of Student Affairs. Students are required to submit a certificate of medical examination performed by their family physician as part of the routine admissions procedure. Those students participating in athletics must also submit annual medical certificates. The University does not assume responsibility for expenses incurred as a result of injuries sustained by students on campus. Further information about the University's accident insurance plan, health insurance and hospitalization plans may be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs.

International Students — International students are covered under the Accident Insurance and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Policies as described above and are also strongly urged to enrol in a health and hospitalization plan such as OMSIP or Ontario Hospital Services Commission.

Placement

Job-seekers, whether they need summer work, part-time work during the academic year, or permanent employment upon graduation, are assisted by the campus Placement Officer, who is appointed by the Canada Manpower Centre. During the year interviews with prospective employers from business, industry and education are arranged for seniors who are registered with the Placement Office.

International Students

The University's concern for the large overseas student population has prompted the establishment of an International Students' Organization, in co-operation with the Students' Administrative Council. The inter-cultural exchange has proven invaluable to all engaged in the development of the program. Over three hundred scholars are enrolled each year, representing nearly thirty countries.

Military Training

The Canadian Armed Forces have several programs on campus, and information is available at the time of academic registration.

III. RESIDENCE ACCOMMODATION

Traditionally the University residence halls provide about half the campus student population. More than half of the University's student population comes from outside the city, representing various regions across Canada, many overseas countries, and the United States. Such a cosmopolitan environment produces important cultural and spiritual by-products enjoyed by all members of the University community. The housing of these out-of-town people is administered by the Office of Student Affairs, which provides on-campus residence information as well as lists of available off-campus lodgings.

Scholastic endeavor is particularly emphasised in the residence halls on campus, where the atmosphere is expected to contribute to personal and social expansion. All new students in their first year of study are expected to live in a residence provided by the University or by one of its federated or affiliated colleges, so far as facilities permit, unless they are living at home or with close relatives.

After the application for residence has been received, the applicant will receive additional information concerning residence hall policies and will be notified of assignment status. A deposit of $30.00 must accompany the application.

Permission to live off campus should be obtained from the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women where students are not living at home or with relatives. No women students under the age of twenty-one will be given permission to live off campus without first submitting written parental approval to the Dean of Women. Lists of off-campus lodgings are published under the direction of the Office of Student Affairs.

General Information

The University of Windsor has recently opened Macdonald Hall, a residence housing 350 men. Additional units are under construction to house women students and to provide a central food facility for residents who are now accommodated by the University Centre. For information write to: The Office of Student Affairs (Residence Housing), University of Windsor, Windsor, Ontario.

Assumption University (a federated institution) provides space for 350 men in Cody Hall and St. Michael's Hall, as well as maintaining the women's residence, Electa Hall, with room for 245 co-eds. For information write to: Assumption University of Windsor (Director of Residence).

Canterbury College operates Geoffrey Fisher Hall, a residence for married students, and other houses for graduate and undergraduate students. For information write to: The Censor, Canterbury College, University of Windsor.

All of the residence halls are situated very close to the major classroom buildings and the University Centre, eliminating transportation problems.

FEES

Fees are subject to change without notice. All fees are for the academic year, except where otherwise indicated.

FULL TIME (UNDERGRADUATE)

Any undergraduate student taking four courses or more will be charged the fee for full time attendance. The following schedule lists the minimum amounts payable, including registration, tuition, library, laboratory, examination, graduation, university centre, health service, insurance, and student government and activities fees.

Evaluation of documents	10.00

ADDITIONAL FEE FOR NON-RESIDENTS OF CANADA

(Applies to all foreign students except those whose parents have taken up permanent residence in Canada. Needy students from overseas developing countries may request that this fee be waived; such requests should be addressed to the President of the University, in writing.)

$20 per subject to a maximum of

$100.00

PAYMENT OF FEES

As a convenience, students may pay their fees at any time in advance of registration day. Fees are due and payable on the day of registration; they may, however, be paid in two instalments (except overseas students who must pay in one payment) in which case a carrying charge of $5.00 is made. The first instalment is due at the time of registration; the second instalment is due on or before January 20, 1969. A penalty of $10.00 will be assessed students paying the second instalment after January 20, 1969.

Failure to pay this outstanding account will bar a student from writing examinations or obtaining credits for previous work.

A reduction is made in the tuition fees of brothers and sisters attending the University simultaneously as full-time students.

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY

Students who are forced to withdraw from a course or from the University, are required to notify the Registrar in writing and to give their reasons for withdrawal. The obligation of teaching and accommodating a student rests on the University on a yearly basis. Hence:

- (1) All tuition credits or refunds shall be made entirely at the discretion of the university.
- (2) Credits or refunds will be made in the following cases only: (a) Cash refunds may be granted in cases where students are compelled to withdraw on account of serious and continued personal illness. (b) Cash refunds may also be granted in cases where the student is compelled to withdraw for other personal reasons provided these are satisfactory to the University authorities.
- (3) The portion of the fee refunded is determined by the date application for refund is received in the Registrar's Office—NOT THE DATE OF WITHDRAWAL. If the application is made during the first week of the semester, a refund of 90% of the semester fees will be returned; during the second week, 80%; during the third week, 60%; during the fourth week, 40%. After the fourth week of each semester no refund will be given. Cheques for refunds will be available only six weeks after withdrawal.

RESIDENCE FEES

Room and Board, per academic year: $850 - 1000.

An extra charge of $15 is made if the residence fee is paid in two instalments.

Each student who wishes to live on campus must send to the Office of Student Affairs (Residence Housing) prior to September 1st a deposit of $30, which will be used as a caution fee. A deposit will be refunded if the reservation is cancelled prior to September 1st.

The Residence Council has a right to place a levy against the caution fee for the social and miscellaneous needs of the residences.

A student who withdraws from residence during the academic year may receive a refund only when such withdrawal is occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the student and has the prior approval of the Director of Residence.

THE FACULTY OF LAW

Architect's first sketch of Law Building

The first sketch of the Law Building was made by the architect in 1911. It shows a long, rectangular building with a central section and several smaller wings. The building is surrounded by a landscape with trees and a paved area. The sketch is rendered in a simple, line-art style, capturing the basic form and layout of the proposed structure.

THE FACULTY OF LAW

THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON LAW STUDIES

The President, the Vice-President, the Dean of Law (Chairman), the Associate Deans of the Faculty (if any), the Law Librarian, the Registrar of the Faculty (if any), all Faculty members of professorial rank; student representatives as agreed.

Officers of Instruction

Brown, Raymond E.; B.A. (Seattle), LL.B. (Washington); Member of the Washington Bar. Professor—1968.

Hughes, Margaret E.; B.A., LL.B. (Saskatchewan); LL.M., M.S.W. (Michigan). Assistant Professor—1968.

Jacobs, Roger F.; A.B. (Detroit), M.A.L.S. (Michigan). Law Librarian and Assistant Professor of Legal Bibliography—1967.

MacGuigan, Mark R.; B.A. (St. Dunstan's), M.A., Ph.D. (Toronto), LL.M., S.J.D. (Columbia). Member of the Ontario Bar. Dean and Professor—1967.

McAuliffe, John W.; B.S. (Fordham), M.B.A. (Michigan), LL.B. (Detroit). Member of the Michigan Bar; Certified Public Accountant, New York and Michigan. Professor—1968.

Zuber, Thomas G.; Q.C. (Ontario), B.A. (Assumption); Member of the Ontario Bar. Professor—1968.

The Faculty of Law of the University of Windsor was established in 1967 with the appointment of Dr. Mark R. MacGuigan, at that time Professor of Law at Osgoode Hall Law School, as Dean of the Faculty and Professor of Law.

The first entering class of students will be admitted in September, 1968. By September, 1970, with the admission of the third entering class, all three years of the law school program will be in operation. The first law degrees at the University of Windsor will be conferred in 1971.

The Law School will occupy temporary quarters on the University of Windsor campus until the completion of a new law building, which it is hoped will be ready by the winter of 1969. The new building will have accommodations for a student body of 400, a faculty of 25, and a library of 150,000 volumes. It will be conveniently situated on the main University campus on University Avenue, a short distance from the Detroit River.

The first staff appointment was that of Professor Roger Jacobs as Librarian and Assistant Professor of Legal Bibliography. Professor Jacobs had been Law Librarian at the University of Detroit since 1963. A Library development program is underway, and it is hoped to have some 40,000 volumes on the shelves when the new building is opened. Four other faculty appointments have been made for the first year of classes, and the faculty will be expanding at a similar annual rate.

The philosophy of legal education of the Faculty of Law is based on the view that law is not an end in itself, but rather a never-ending process towards the achievement of social ends; education in the law, therefore, is education in a process-oriented social science which is continuously directed to the creation of the best possible social order.

Inasmuch as it is practised, law is of course an art as well as a (social) science. But despite the fact that most lawyers will spend the greater part of their professional lives engaged in the day-to-day practice of law, the best legal education even for such a career is nevertheless one which focusses on law as science rather than as art. This is so not only because legal skills are most effectively learned in actual practice, whether as articled clerk or as junior lawyer, not only because once caught up in the onrushing currents of affairs a practitioner can never again touch down for long on the fertile soil of scholarship, but primarily because legal techniques (as opposed to skills) are fundamentally matters of knowledge rather than of mere performance. Hence practice itself, to the extent that it is not just routine (and most routine does not require any kind of legal education by way of preparation), requires the kind of understanding of legal processes that can be gained only in an academic environment that puts law in perspective as a social process.

Yet the law is a practical, not a theoretical, science. Thus the law school, although it may use the resources and insights of sociology, economics, social psychology, and history, does not intend to turn the law student into a sociologist, economist, social psychologist, or historian, or to contribute to the knowledge of those disciplines as such. The focal point of legal study always remains law, which, as the social science which orders human conduct, is therefore the most practical in its orientation. Law, then, must always remain the master in its own house, even while relying heavily on other sciences.

Granted its practical bent, that legal education is best which reaches for the broadest and deepest understanding of the law — not only at the philosophical level but also at the level of legal principles and concepts. The conquest of some considerable detail is of course essential — law cannot be grasped without a knowledge of laws — but the aim should be detail for understanding's sake rather than for its own sake.

Canadian law schools have traditionally concentrated upon the development of one legal technique: the analysis and solution of problems arising from an already existent fact situation. Such a narrow focus can no longer be justified, and legal education must therefore attempt to develop the techniques of drafting, negotiation, planning, counselling and advocacy. All of these techniques, of course must be enveloped in a jurisprudential perspective.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

Admission Requirements

A candidate for admission to the first year of the course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws must submit proof of:—

- (a) graduation from a recognized university with a Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent; or

Faculty of Law

- (b) completion of two years' academic work in a recognized university after requirements similar to the Ontario Grade 13 certificate (Senior Matriculation); or
- (c) completion of three years' academic work in a recognized university after requirements similar to the Ontario Grade 12 certificate (Junior Matriculation).

Every candidate for admission must give particulars of any previous study of law and must furnish details of any interruption of his academic program.

These are minimum requirements for admission and the Faculty reserves the right, in the case of all candidates, to pass upon the content and grades of previous academic work and to reject candidates whose academic work is, in the opinion of the Faculty, unsatisfactory.

Content of Academic Work Qualifying for Admission

A degree in Arts, Science, Commerce, Medicine, Engineering or Applied Science will normally satisfy the "content" requirement for admission of graduates of recognized universities.

Other applications for admission will be dealt with on their own merits, and admission will depend on the approval of the Faculty regarding the academic program offered by the applicant, and on the grades obtained in such academic work.

Satisfactory Grades in Pre-Legal Academic Work

A "B" grade or second class honours (approximately 66%) will be considered a satisfactory degree of attainment in pre-legal academic work. Candidates who have not attained that standard will not necessarily be denied admission, but in all such cases applications will be dealt with on their merits, subject to whatever explanations may be provided by the applicant, by persons to be named in the application form from whom letters of recommendation are received, and on the basis of any other information that the Faculty may at its discretion request.

Procedure

All applications for admission to the First Year of the course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be submitted to the Faculty of Law, University of Windsor.

In light of the fact that it is necessary to limit the number of persons who may be admitted into the First Year of the course, it is recommended that applications for admission should be in the hands of the Faculty by July 4th. Applications received after July 4th will be considered having regard to limitations of space and numbers.

All applications for admission are considered by the Committee on Admissions for Law Studies. Applications must be on the forms prescribed by the Committee and must be accompanied by:—

- (1) the applicant's matriculation certificate unless he has obtained a university degree;
- (2) official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate work from all colleges or universities attended;
- (3) two letters of recommendation;
- (4) any further information that may be required by the Committee in a particular case.

Applicants will be notified as soon as possible whether or not their applications have been accepted. An applicant who is notified that his application has been accepted must signify his intention to attend by July 31st, or within two weeks of the date of the posting of the notification of his acceptance, whichever is later. Failure to do so may result in withdrawal of acceptance.

Where an applicant has not obtained a Bachelor's degree prior to January 1st of the calendar year for which he is seeking admission to law school, the Committee will not, except in unusual circumstances, make a decision on his application before transcripts of his complete pre-law course are available, and not normally before July.

ADMISSION TO THE PRACTICE OF LAW

The degree of Bachelor of Laws does not in itself admit to practice, and a student registering for this course and contemplating practice should communicate with the secretary of the Law Society in the province in which he intends to apply for admission to the profession. Every provincial Law Society in the common law provinces requires some period of articleship within the provinces as a condition of being admitted to practice. Some provinces may require that, in addition to the LL.B. degree, a student have a B.A. degree before being admitted to his period of articleship; other provinces will admit a student to articleship who entered on his legal studies with a minimum of two years' university work after Grade 13 or its equivalent.

In Ontario, the Law Society of Upper Canada, the governing body of the profession for bar admittance purposes, on February 15, 1957 made provision for recognizing as candidates for admission to the practice of law in Ontario persons who had entered a law course with either a degree in an approved course from an approved university, or upon successful completion of two years in an approved course in an approved university after Senior Matriculation (Grade 13 or its equivalent), or successful completion of three years in an approved course in an approved university after Junior Matriculation. The admission requirements of the Faculty of Law of the University of Windsor satisfy these conditions.

Faculty of Law

Graduates from an approved law course in Ontario are eligible for admission to the Law Society and for entrance to the Bar Admission Course conducted by the Law Society, provided they satisfy the further requirements prescribed by the Law Society, such as citizenship, good character and fitness, and payment of fees. The Bar Admission Course of the Law Society in the province of Ontario consists of a period of service under articles of one year (September 1st to August 31st of the succeeding year) and a further period of practical and clinical training supervised by the Law Society, of not more than six months (September 1st to February 28th). The foregoing requirements of the Law Society cover admission to, and the course of study in, all law schools in Canada qualifying students for admission to the Bar Admission Course.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

The Faculty may, on application and on payment of the appropriate fees, admit persons as special students to attendance at lectures and classes, and as candidates for examination, in one or more of the subjects of the course. Such courses may be taken either for credit or non-credit, at the discretion of the Faculty.

SESSIONS

The course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws requires full time attendance for three years. Each annual session is composed of thirty teaching weeks, exclusive of examinations, fifteen weeks in the first term and fifteen weeks in the second term.

The first term will commence Wednesday, September 4th and will end Friday, December 20th, 1968. The second term will commence Monday, January 13th and will end Wednesday, May 7th, 1969.

EXAMINATIONS

In one-term courses examinations will be held at the end of the term in which the course is given; in two-term courses examinations may be held at the end of each term, or only at the end of the second term, at the option of the instructor. An instructor, at his option, may allow up to (and including) 50% of the final mark for term work. With the approval of the Faculty, an instructor may dispense entirely with a final examination.

In order to obtain standing for a year, a student must obtain an average of at least 55% on all subjects and a minimum of 50% in each individual subject. Honour standing will be awarded to a student who obtains standing with an average of 75% or better; Pass Class I to a student who obtains standing with an average of 66% to 74% inclusive; Pass Class II to a student who obtains standing with an average of 60% to 65% inclusive; and Pass standing to other candidates successful in obtaining standing.

Students will not normally be permitted to repeat a year, if failed. However, the Faculty may on petition or on its own motion, permit a student to repeat a year if, in its view, his academic record taken as a whole, together with any further evidence of his general ability, indicates that he is likely to complete law school without further academic problems. Where a student petitions to repeat a year, the onus of proving that he is a good academic risk rests upon him.

SUPPLEMENTAL EXAMINATIONS

- (a) Supplemental examinations are a privilege which may be granted by the Faculty in special cases. They are not to be considered a regular method of enabling students to complete the requirements for the year, but will be granted only in cases of genuine doubt or hardship.
- (b) A student who sits and writes the regular examinations will not be permitted to write supplementals unless:
  - (i) on medical or compassionate grounds he is able to demonstrate that his performance at the regular examinations did not reflect his true ability, or
  - (ii) his academic record taken as a whole justifies the view that his failure in one or more subjects is an abnormal departure from a pattern of acceptable work; except in exceptional circumstances this will require an overall average of at least 55% on the year's work.
- (c) A student who does not sit and write all of the regular examinations may be permitted to write one or more supplementals if he is able to justify his inability to write the examinations on medical or compassionate grounds, and he does not qualify for aegrotat standing.

AEGROTAT STANDING

- (a) Aegrotat standing may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be granted to a student, who, on medical or compassionate grounds, has been unable to write, or to pass, one or more examinations.
- (b) A student will not be granted aegrotat standing if his academic record taken as a whole does not justify the assumption that he would have successfully passed the examination. In the case of first year students, the absence of any law school record may lead to denial of aegrotat standing, although a good pre-law record, coupled with satisfactory term work and success in other examinations written may lead to the granting of aegrotat standing.
- (c) Students denied aegrotat standing may be permitted to write supplementals.
- (d) Students granted aegrotat standing in one or more subjects shall not be ranked in the class but shall receive an average mark for the other subjects taken.

Faculty of Law

PROGRAM OF STUDY

The program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) requires full time attendance for three years. Only the First Year of the program will be given in the 1968-69 academic year, with the Second Year being offered for the first time in the 1969-70 academic year, and the Third Year in the 1970-71 academic year.

The general structure of the curriculum will be as follows:—

First Year

A basic level of instruction, through mandatory courses, in all the fundamental areas, problems, and principles of the law — this will require somewhat more stress on public law and perspective courses than the traditional First Year curriculum;

Second Year

The groundwork for concentration through prerequisite courses — some Second Year courses will be required of all students, others mandatory only in relation to concentration;

Third Year

Concentration in a small number of areas through seminars, demonstrations, supervised research, and participatory pedagogy (e.g. in evidence, procedure and negotiation) — it is expected that all courses will be optional.

In order to allow the maximum concentration and not to distract the student by too much variety at any given time, most courses will be given in a single semester; in some courses this will necessitate daily class meetings.

DETAILS OF SUBJECTS — FIRST YEAR

All the subjects as listed below must be taken. In addition, all First Year students will be required to participate in a Legal Writing program.

Civil Procedure

An introduction to the procedure in a civil action in the light of the adversary process; historical background; organization of courts in Canada, including the relationship of courts of criminal jurisdiction to courts of civil jurisdiction; jurisdiction of courts; pleadings and discovery; forms of trial, method of proof, controls over jury; judgments; costs, res judicata; appeals; parties. (60 hours, second term. Professor Zuber.)

Constitutional Law

An introduction to the question of the separation of the governmental powers and to the federal system; historical development of constitutionalism; the Crown and remedies against the Crown and its agents; the judiciary; structure and operation of Parliament and the provincial legislatures. (30 hours, second term. Professor Brown.)

Contracts

Formation of contracts; consideration; writing (and the Statute of Frauds); mutual assent, third party beneficiaries; capacity of parties; performance, breach and conditions; fraud and misrepresentation; remedies; quasi-contracts; the relationship between principal and agent; authority and power of an agent; rights and duties of the principal. (75 hours, first term. Professor Zuber.)

Criminal Law and Procedure

The exploration of major problems of the criminal law and its administration, viewed as a method of controlling socially undesirable behaviour; criminal law and civil liberties; selected problems in police powers, criminal evidence and criminal procedure; general principles applicable to all criminal offences; selected offences. (60 hours, second term. Professor Hughes.)

The Judicial Process

A study of the function and limits of judicial decision-making with an introduction to the jurisprudential philosophies of positivism, natural law thought, sociologism, and legal realism. (45 hours, second term. Dean MacGuigan.)

Legal Bibliography

An introduction to the law library and to legal research. (5 hours, first term. Professor Jacobs.)

The Legislative Process

A study of the law-making process in Parliament and the provincial legislatures; legislation as a solution to social problems; drafting and passage; interpretation; establishment of administrative tribunals; regulations and delegated legislation. (45 hours, first term. Professor Hughes.)

Property

Interests in land; estates, landlord and tenant; concurrent ownership; fixtures; easements; licences and profits; future interests; the Statute of Uses; the Statute of Limitations; bailments, licenses, pledges and securities on personal property. (45 hours, each term (90 hours). Professor McAuliffe.)

Torts

Intentional interference with the person, land and chattels; privileges; negligent interference with the person and property; liability of occupiers of land; strict liability; nuisance; defamation; vicarious liability. (75 hours, first term. Professor Brown.)
