90th Anniversary

All Saints' Church
Windsor, Ontario
My greeting to All Saints' Church, Windsor, on its Ninetieth Anniversary. In some countries ninety years is young for a Parish, but in Canada it means quite a long piece of history. The years that have gone by since All Saints' Church was founded have been full of adventures, of light and shade, and many changes. God has led the Parish through to this notable anniversary. It is wonderful how we are led through the years. To Him we return thanks on such a day. We remember, also, the saints of the parish who have been the human instruments of its maintenance and progress. May the anniversary be a happy one in this year of a great twofold victory, in Europe and in Asia.

As the Primate, I congratulate All Saints' Church, Windsor, on its venerable birthday, and thank the Parish for the contribution it has made to the building up of our Church in Canada.

DERWYN TORONTO
Primate
The year 1855, which was the birthday of All Saint's, lies between two significant periods in Canadian history. The struggle for Responsible Government was over; and Canada was moving toward the epochal date of Confederation, 1867.

The development of our country since the latter date has been phenomenal. Following a deep financial depression of the earlier 1890's, the year 1896 and following witnessed an amazing growth of the West. A corresponding development took place in the East marked by a rapid increase in our industrial, and therefore our urban population. In this movement Windsor fully shared, developing from an ordinary Ontario town into the present active industrial city. With the increase of population All Saints' became a mother of Churches with a brave forward look into the future, and the leading centre of our Anglican interests in that part of the Diocese.

Yet ours is a young country still. Great changes lie ahead involving particularly every city and town in the country. The forward look is therefore more necessary now than ever.

I congratulate the congregation on its long and distinguished service of ninety years, and I am sure that the celebration of this the greater task, remains to be done.

"Let your loins be girded about and your lights burning".

May the divine blessing rest upon that work through the congregation of All Saints' which is so dear to the hearts of all of us.

This booklet is set forth in the month of Thanksgiving. It is a Thanksgiving booklet—for it is the grateful record of an appreciative people as they contemplate all the way by which from age to age God has led and blessed us.

In a land as new as Canada 90 years is a very considerable portion of the nation’s history. All Saints’ has travelled all that way and kept pace with an expanding country and community. Its contribution to the spiritual, cultural and social life of Windsor can never be truly evaluated. Likewise its work and witness in this day and its power for good in the future cannot be truly weighed or forecast. We who are privileged to be here in this hour can but say this—that “remembering the rock whence we are hewn and the pit whence we are digged” we “thank God and take courage.”

Tribute, both specific and general is paid in these pages to those who have laboured to build and maintain this House of God. Testimony is given in phrase and picture of the devoted work of the present “fellowship of the faithful” in this great parish. A vision of things to come is presented to our hopefilled eyes. Let us to the task with ready hearts and hands!

The blood of the world’s gallant has but recently flowed to preserve the Four Freedoms. It is our holy privilege to revere the glorious dead, to welcome the brave repatriates and to build the Better World for which they served and sacrificed. To this let us rededicate ourselves, soul and body, in the quiet confidence that He who has blessed us through 90 years will do so still, while we remain faithful to our high calling.

It is inevitable that vast changes have been experienced not alone in the personnel but in the position, nature and function of this parish during 90 years. The growth of Windsor, with a few thousand, to Greater Windsor, with more than 125 thousand, is in itself indicative of the magnitude of change. Urbanization, industrialization, commercialization and depopulation of the contiguous area have all brought change to All Saints’. But the proud faithfulness of “Charter Members” still and the zeal of our newest parishioners give living testimony to the warm vitality of our parish life. Retrenchment and curtailment of her work and witness is unthinkable to this spiritual mother. Rather she contemplates expansion of the fabric of her buildings and the scope of her community service.

This is the vision and this the confidence to which this 90th anniversary stirs us all. To us the opportunity and to God the increase!

R. CHARLES BROWN
Foreword

ALL through the years, the loyalty and untiring efforts of many men and women have been behind the progress of the Church. The names of some of them will appear in the separate accounts of organizations; but it is impossible in a few pages covering the long 90 years of our history to mention all of them. We do, however, hold them in grateful memory. Their generosity in giving financial assistance, time, talent, and thought; their faith and vision, have been the very fabric of the history of All Saints', Windsor.

Particularly, we acknowledge the faithful service of our wardens, whose names are included in the list on page 13. Among those who, although unlisted, have yet been a source of steady encouragement and strength, are the many who have served faithfully Sunday after Sunday, in good weather and in bad, in choir and Sunday School; who have attended choir practice week after week, given flowers for the Altar, served as ushers, or on the vestry, and supported the work of the Church and her organizations in many other ways.

Portions of this history have been procured from the parish records, from the anniversary booklets of 1925 and of 1935, and from the memories of members of the congregation. The reports of the organizations still functioning have been supplied by present officers. Mr. George F. MacDonald has contributed from his vast store of knowledge of the history of Windsor. In this small booklet it has not been possible to include everything that has been collected; furthermore, some of our records are incomplete. We offer our apologies for errors and omissions and hope that members and friends will send in corrections and additions, so that the present effort may be the beginning of a more adequate history, documented by archives, which will keep always before us the steadfast devotion of those who have built so well. May their examples be an inspiration to us, with God's grace, to build for the future.

In beginning even a brief history of All Saints' Church, one must glance at the history of the community in which it has played so vital a part, and remember the significant world events of the last 90 years, which have been so important to the progress and future of Canada and of the Church. In 1846 the population of the village of Windsor, Canada West, was about 300. In 1854, shortly after services were begun to be held for the Church of England here, it had grown to 750. With the coming of the Great Western Railway, Windsor boomed from village status to a town, and with that growth came an increased need for the services of the Church. According to the Census of Canada. 1860-1, the population was then 2509. In 1871 came the fire, which, however, removed many of the flimsy buildings, which were replaced by more substantial structures. At that time the whole country was plunged into a deep depression, and the influx of insurance money helped provide work for Windsorites during the worst days.

When Windsor was incorporated as a city in 1892, with a population of 10,928, the religious and spiritual welfare of its citizens was being ministered to by only 12 Churches; by 1935, there were 95. The spiritual life has kept pace with the growth of Windsor.

We can only mention the establishment of the Ford Motor Company here in 1904, with the subsequent establishment of other manufacturing plants; the world-wide depression of 1929, resulting in a temporary halt in the city's forward march; the amalgamation of the four Border municipalities under the name of Windsor in 1935. These changes in Windsor have brought about great changes in the extent of the parish which All Saints' serves, and in the removal from the vicinity of many of her members. Now All Saints' must meet many new problems arising out of her position as a down-town Church in a large community.

Along with the changes in Windsor, there have been world-shaking events, particularly the last two Great Wars, which have challenged the Church only to prove its faith and strength. In the midst of the present changing, restless, sometimes terrifying world, All Saints' must build solidly upon the foundations of ninety years, using to the full the stabilizing forces and elevating influences available.

Beginnings

N the vestry minutes of St. John's Church, Sandwich, for October 23, 1852, there appears the following note:

"Moved—that the services be held in St. John's Church in the morning and evening, and at Windsor in the afternoon of every Sunday. Carried. Rev. E. H. Dewar, 7th Rector of St. John's, presided."

Rev. Mr. Dewar conducted the services at first in the "Brick School House", which was probably located on what is now Windsor Avenue, between Pitt and Chatham Streets, and later in the building belonging to the Congregational Society on Ferry Street in the middle of the block between the present Pitt and Chatham Streets, which afterwards became known as Lambie's Hall, where the present Windsor Star office stands. Sometimes services were held in the "Council Chamber" on the south side of Sandwich Street, about where Smith's Auditorium is located.

In the Windsor Herald of May 5, 1855, a significant note appears:

"A meeting of the Church of England was held in the Council Chamber, on Thursday evening, at which the following gentlemen were elected a committee with power to purchase a site and take steps for erecting a church during the present summer: Dr. A. K. Dewar, H. Kennedy, J. Brown, J. Hutton and the incumbent. It was also resolved that all sums subscribed be paid on the 1st of July, half in cash, and half in notes payable in three months from that date."

On July 17 of that year the corner stone was laid. The Herald of July 14 says:

"The site selected is very favorably situated, being on the rising ground, in front of the barracks, on the corner of Windsor Ave., and London St., and therefore is the very centre of the village. The Church will present a very beautiful appearance, being designed by Mr. (Alex) Jordon, of the firm of Jordon & Jordan, of Detroit, and of the new Court House at Sandwich. The building fund has now reached the sum of £509, 5s., which have been subscribed in the following manner:"

The Great Western Lodge of Free Masons and clergy from several towns assisted in the ceremonies. The address was given by the Rev Wm. Bettridge, B.D., Rector of Woodstock, and Mr. Jordon, the architect, and Mr. Alexander Mackenzie, contractor for the Court House at Sandwich, (who was later to become Prime Minister of Canada) assisted in the adjustment of the stone. The Rev. E. H. Dewar, Rector of the Parish, laid the Latin inscription, which was deposited under the stone together with a list of subscribers to the building fund, and several newspapers and other documents.
Morning Service, 1866, Interrupted by Rumours of Fenian Raid

R. H. Whittaker, formerly Augusta and Charlotte Mann, now of Toronto. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. George Short, grandparents of Mr. E. Irene Laiding and H. Higginbottom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hunt, parents of Mrs. Hedley Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Benson, parents of Mrs. F. H. Laing.

Tenders for building the Church were called for, and it was stipulated that the work must be finished by October 30, 1855. Apparently the need for workmen and funds interfered with that plan. As usual, the women of the Parish came forward, planned a bazaar, and raised the sum of $901.45! The Herald of June 6, 1856, speaks of the Church having been commenced, and its October 17th issue of that year says, “It is now taking form and shape.” The Church was opened for Divine Service on September 10, 1857.

Progress under the Guidance of Devoted Rectors

The Rev. Edward H. Dewar, M.A., who is thus credited with founding All Saints’ Church, was most scholarly and energetic, carrying on the work at St. John’s as well as in Windsor, and interesting himself in all the affairs of the growing community. He edited The Churchman’s Friend for the diffusion of information relative to the Church of England, her Doctrine, and Practice, the subscription monthly, was priced at half a dollar per annum. During Lent he held evening prayers with a course of lectures every Wednesday. He was president of the Mechanics Institute, from which he frequently lectured, and he protected the first public library in the community. The Herald of Dec. 12, 1856 says:

“Mr. Dewar has endeavored to promote the welfare of the village by devoting his mental power to the accomplishment of the task of establishing an institution and a library for the benefit of all the residents.”

He was keenly interested in education. The Herald of Dec. 26, 1856, has an article and a letter by him about his attending the examinations in the Protestant Common School in Windsor, which he reports to be in a very efficient state. But he regrets the lack of interest shown by the parents. “The heart of a child,” he says, “is a very tender plant and needs careful nursing.”

The work in Windsor grew so important that on completion of the edifice here in 1857, Mr. Dewar resigned to become the first rector of All Saints; which charge, however, he resigned in 1859.

The first years of our history, thus briefly recorded, indicate the lines along which the activities of the congregation and its rectors have been conducted, functioning vitally in the midst of the community, and interested in the church at large.

Mr. Dewar was succeeded by the Rev. John Hurst, who originally came to Canada as a Missionary from the Colonial and Continental Church Society of England, to minister to the colored population which had come across the Detroit River a few years previously. Evidently Windsor and Sandwich again constituted one charge, for Mr. Hurst was rector of Sandwich too; but in 1865 the work of Windsor made such pressing demands on his time that he resigned St. John’s to become rector of All Saints.

One of the early description of the Church is in the recollections of Dr. K. Carney, who first visited All Saints in that year, “at which time one had, in approaching it from Sandwich St., to cross over quite a gully via a foot bridge.” (This was over a stream called “Terre Noir”, which ran from about the present Wyandotte Street, emptied at an old sluice into the Detroit River, and was intercepted by a sewer.)

“The church did not then have a transept, a steeple, a rectory, or a school house.”

Mr. Hurst made two different visits to England for the purpose of raising the funds so urgently needed, both for the church, and for the colored people, whom he or the rector continued to serve. A report for the Society for the Relief of Colored People states that he raised $1,200 for the Church through the Colonial and Continental Church Society. In his work among the colored people, he was assisted by his wife, and a lady who came out from England. In 1870 the transepts and chancel were added, the work being completed in 1871. This was therefore indebted to England for the Church proper. In 1871 Mr. Hurst appealed to the congregation for sufficient money to buy the ground south of the Church, and the rest of the block, on which Sunday School, parish buildings, and Rectory now stand.

The Church was dedicated under the name “All Saints’ Church”, and so All Saints’ Day, (November 1) becomes our Patronal Festival.

On that day throughout subsequent years, we commemorate not only the Saints and Martyrs of the early days of the Apostolic Church, but we also bless God’s Holy Name for all those who have departed this life in His Faith and Fear, especially those members of the congregation. On All Saints’ Day we shall think of those Saints of God, our own loved ones who once worshipped with us in the flesh, and whose name and example should prove an inspiration to us to nobler living in the future.

Among those on the platform when the Corner Stone was laid were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott, parents of Arthur, Elizabeth, and Annie Scott, so long influential in our Church, and Mr. T. C. and Mr. A. F. Sutton. From then on members of the latter family have been associated with All Saints’ Church, the latest being Mrs. Niel Lee and Mrs.
As the Rev. J. Hurst was unable to give a detailed Report of his Mission in consequence of his absence in this country collecting funds for this already twice enlarged church, now needing further enlargement, he has forwarded us a letter from his daughter, who has long been an earnest worker among the coloured people under her father’s care.

Mr. Hurst thus writes as to the result of his tour in England:

"The collection for the enlargement of my church has amounted to something over £1,000, as may be seen by the account in the Society’s office; besides this I have spent 200 on commission for my parishioners, bringing up the net amount of the collection to £21. I need not say that I feel very thankful for this result of my appeal, and I take this opportunity of thanking the Committee, through you, for the encouragement my appeal has received from them. You will see from the above statement that the condition on which the Committee kindly promised me a grant of £500 has been fulfilled, and I shall be glad if they will carry out this proposal, as the amount of £1,000 must be raised, or a debt will remain on the church."

stand, became the property of All Saints’. In 1873 Mr. Hurst resigned to become Secretary of the Colonial and Continental Church Society.

Mr. Hurst was succeeded by the Rev. Canon A. St. George Caulfield, D.D., who was rector from 1874 until his death in 1881. It was during his ministry that the spire was built, and also a pipe organ installed in the gallery at the west end. Dr. Carney suggested that “because of the number of nonconformists continuously attending, the Church had been conducted in a very broad spirit, which spirit was maintained throughout Canon Caulfield’s ministry.” During the last year of his ministry he was too ill to conduct services, and the Rev. Daniel Deacon, later of Stratford, was locum tenens.

The Rev. W. H. Ramsay was next rector, being appointed in 1882. During his three years of ministry, a surpliced choir was introduced, and the organ was brought down from the gallery and placed in the chancel, choir stalls being provided, and other necessary alterations made. In 1883 the stoves in the church were removed and a furnace installed. Extra pews replaced the stove space. The next year pew rents were established, to be paid quarterly. (These rents were later abandoned.) In those days these and other changes were considered dangerous innovations, “High Church ceremonies”, and several influential members left the church on that score. Although Mr. Ramsay was an active and zealous worker, he did not remain long enough to replace fully the loss in membership.

Mr. Ramsay was succeeded by the Rev. Canon John P. Hincks, who was rector until 1903. Canon Hincks, a man of deep learning and piety, was greatly beloved by the congregation. Almost immediately he set about preparing for an increasing membership incidental to the progressive growth in population of the parish—first in the interests of the little ones, viz., greater Sunday School accommodation. In Canon HinCK’s fine handwriting in the Preacher’s Book, there is a note that from July 30 to September 10, 1898, the Church was unavoidably closed for a three-week vacation of cleaning and renovating of the interior, in addition to the adjoining Chapel or School House being at the same time in course of erection.

He seemed always to remember that harmony could only be maintained by avoiding serious differences in the form of service and in the obligations of membership. Certainly he promoted the kindliest co-operation with the other Christian churches and placed the Ministerial Association upon a basis un-prejudiced and unprejudiced. It soon became apparent that his response to his ministrations in a field which was widening correspondingly to the increase in population was passing beyond the seating capacity of the church. He met this situation unselfishly, and endeavoured to attract among the incoming railway men in the west end, which endeavor is today fully justified by the rapid and vigorous development of the Church of the Ascension.

That his work was early appreciated by his people is indicated by the fact that he began to erect a rectory, which was taken up enthusiastically by the Ladies’ Aid, and was completed the next year.

His reputation for absent-mindedness remains, and many amusing stories of him still tell. Thus, an absent-mindedness, on occasion, a saintly character and faithful ministry are yet cherished by the older members of the congregation. The spiritual life of the growing community was richer for his zeal, his candidness, and his faithfulness.

Collections were made “for The Home of the Friendless”, for Huron College, and for the “poor fund”. In 1901 the International Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew met here, and afterwards several new men were initiated. The denomination was represented, and his memory is held in the record to which he contributed so much, and is dedicated in many a household still—Roman Catholic as well as Anglican and other Protestant denominations.

The Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, M.A., the next rector, was inducted on Feb. 3, 1904. In 1905 a special service was held for the liquidating the church’s floating debt succeeded in lowering that amount considerably. Collections for foreign missions were also stressed. The report for the year ending April 30, 1907, shows the obligations for Diocesan and Missionary funds met in full, at least 25 new families added, and 53 candidates confirmed. Few rents are mentioned as a source of revenue. During Mr. Chadwick’s ministry, the church was renovated; new pews were installed; a new pipe organ was procured, the chancel enlarged, and most of the furnishings necessary for reverent and orderly worship added. The church as we now know it in its beauty and completeness is a permanent reminder of the able and energetic ministry of Mr. Chadwick. Under his presidency, a Church Improvement Society was formed on June 3, 1907, to pay for the much-needed improvements. Mr. Alfred White, Canon Deacon, was Secretary, and Miss Mabel Treble, Treasurer. The following 16 members collected money during the year 1910: Messrs. BROCK, BROWNING, DAVIGNON, DUC, LEWIS, MANN, NELSON, and RUTHVEN. Whyte and Wilkinson, and Mr. L. CLEMONS, DICKINSON, GALL, GERARD, and JOHNSON. The total amount expended on the work was $8598.75, of which all had been paid by 1910.

In reviewing his last five years here in 1910, Mr. Chadwick noted a steady advance in every way, but particularly again urged missionary outlook. At the Laymen’s Banquet reported that year, Rev. Canon (later Dean) Tucker said, “If every communicant member of the Christian Churches contributed 10c a Sunday to Missions, the world could be evangelized in this generation.” Mr. Chadwick resigned to become Rector of St. Paul’s, Vancouver, later going to St. John’s, Victoria, B. C. In recent years since his retirement, Canon Chadwick has occasionally been a welcome visitor at All Saints’.

Mr. Chadwick was succeeded in 1911 by the Rev. Arthur CARLISLE, a graduate of Huron College, who in a very short time not only endeared himself to the members of his own congregation, but also reached a position of pre-eminence in the community and in the Diocese. In the latter he was appointed Canon and Dean of St. John’s. In recognition of his services to the community, notably as Juvenile Court Judge and member of the Board of Education, will be long remembered. As a preacher he had few, if any, equals. The financial reports during his rectorship show a steady increase in receipts; the number of families claiming membership more than doubled; the congregations grew, and the Communicant attendance increased materially. At Easter 1920, there was a record of over 650 communicants. Through the efforts of Mr. Earp, the church and parish remained on a strong footing, and the recent improvements were wiped out. After Easter, 1912, all pews were declared free. Beginning in 1913 there was much discussion about enlarging the Sunday School, and in 1914, Canon Carlisle was appointed chairman, which did a great deal of work in planning and canvassing the parish, but the arduous duties and anxieties occasioned by the outbreak of war postponed the undertaking.

In 1916, Mr. Earp was appointed deacon of the Western Ontario Contingent, he himself going overseas in 1916. During his absence his assistant, Rev. P. X. Harding, carried on alone until the appointment of the Rev. Perceval Harding in 1917. Mr. Earp was his assistant for the first year, the Social Service Club Miss Anne Grant was appointed as Deaconess in 1917, and for many years did excellent work. To provide some healthy gathering places for men of the parish, particularly the many homeless young men then coming to Windsor, and to bring them closer to the Church, a newly-organized Men's Club rented the Rectory and renovated it as a clubhouse. During those trying days of war and of the influenza epidemic of 1918, the devotion and sacrifice of Canon Carlisle were continually evident. Special services of intercession were held each week day at 4:30 p.m. from September 1917, to May 1919. Canon Carlisle (now Archdeacon) left the parish on December 31, 1921, to become Dean of Montreal, and Rector of Christ Church Cathedral, later becoming Bishop of the Diocese of Montreal, until his death in 1931. The result of this was a very great worry to the Rector, who especially regretted that All Saints' was not able to meet completely the Diocesan Budget. It was recommended that to raise his required income of $400, in addition to this the Rector received strong support from the Vestry and the sidesmen under the chairmanship of Mr. Frank Ellis. The parish was thoroughly canvassed by personal calls, Missers, W. G. McClellan, S. E. Rigg, and A. Lewis acting as captains, and in anticipation of the 80th anniversary of the church. “Cents-a-Meal” donation boxes were distributed and collected by the Vestry, aided by the Boys' Bible Class. Many steps were taken to increase the revenue, including a “Carnival of Nations” held in the Windsor Armouries. As early as 1927 the work among the needy had become so imperative that funds were placed at the disposal of the Vestry, and in 1928, the Rectory Fund was established, with the Diocesan Budget, the challenge of the Restoration Fund to restore the money lost in the West during the depression was also heroically met—the drive in All Saints' Church under the Rev. W. E. Bagnall, and Rev. B. Galler, raised about $20,000. It is significant that Canadian Bishops and clergy gave 5% of their stipends to this cause. Gifts for the Dioceses of Saskatchewan and Saskatoon were sponsored by the Parish Worker’s Guild.

For some time two delegates from each Parish organization attended the Tuesday meeting of the Diocesan Vestry, and this resulted in a much more sympathetic understanding of all branches of Church work. A system of giving at each vestry meeting a monthly financial statement comparing with that of the previous year was established. A Communion Register was begun. With loyal support from the Vestry, increased attendance was built up by Canon Harding and his assistants, in turn these being Rev. Walter E. Bagnall, Rev. William R. Sproule, Rev. Jeffery Peningsley, and Rev. Walter L. Brown. Constantly the Rector urged better accommodations for the Sunday School, more assistance in teaching, and more family worship in the pews. In 1931 a mission was begun at Remington Park with Rev. Walter Fry in charge. In 1932 broadcasting over CKLW began, and on April 30 of the following year the eleven o'clock service was begun for the first time. Preaching on Hebrews XI: 38. Such broadcasts have continued up to the present, the eleven o'clock service on the second and fourth Sundays in each month now being heard. The results of these efforts of the Rector and his clergy are not to be seen in 1935, when the liabilities were reduced by $4,000 ($2,000 being contributed from the Scott Estate). By 1937 it was possible to pay the Diocesan Budget in full, to reduce the bank loan and mortgage, and to make new needed repairs. In 1938 the annual report presented by Mr. Rigg showed 4,000 members, comprising 900 families.

The list of improvements made in church and parish house during his ministry—the enlargement of the church north wall, a new roof put on, a clergy vestry built and equipped, and both church and parish halls remodeled. The improvement does not indicate the extent of the work carried on by Canon Harding during the trying days of the depression and later of war. He devoted himself to the welfare of the parish and its community, making George Street a scene of interest and activity, and terrorizing his health. Voluntarily he decreased his stipend for several years, and shared generously with parishioners and others, in addition. The Windsor Star of February 16, 1944 said: "Canon Harding, who was appointed deacon of the Western Contingent, 1914, and later to the Contingent in 1918, was appointed deacon of the parish in 1917, and for many years did excellent work. To provide some healthy gathering places for men of the parish, particularly the many homeless young men then coming to Windsor, and to bring them closer to the Church, a newly-organized Men's Club rented the Rectory and renovated it as a clubhouse. During those trying days of war and of the influenza epidemic of 1918, the devotion and sacrifice of Canon Carlisle were continually evident. Special services of intercession were held each week day at 4:30 p.m. from September 1917, to May 1919. Canon Carlisle (now Archdeacon) left the parish on December 31, 1921, to become Dean of Montreal, and Rector of Christ Church Cathedral, later becoming Bishop of the Diocese of Montreal, until his death in 1931. The result of this was a very great worry to the Rector, who especially regretted that All Saints' was not able to meet completely the Diocesan Budget. It was recommended that to raise his required income of $400, in addition to this the Rector received strong support from the Vestry and the sidesmen under the chairmanship of Mr. Frank Ellis. The parish was thoroughly canvassed by personal calls, Missers, W. G. McClellan, S. E. Rigg, and A. Lewis acting as captains, and in anticipation of the 80th anniversary of the church. “Cents-a-Meal” donation boxes were distributed and collected by the Vestry, aided by the Boys' Bible Class. Many steps were taken to increase the revenue, including a “Carnival of Nations” held in the Windsor Armouries. As early as 1927 the work among the needy had become so imperative that funds were placed at the disposal of the Vestry, and in 1928, the Rectory Fund was established, with the Diocesan Budget, the challenge of the Restoration Fund to restore the money lost in the West during the depression was also heroically met—the drive in All Saints' Church under the Rev. W. E. Bagnall, and Rev. B. Galler, raised about $20,000. It is significant that Canadian Bishops and clergy gave 5% of their stipends to this cause. Gifts for the Dioceses of Saskatchewan and Saskatoon were sponsored by the Parish Worker's Guild.

For some time two delegates from each Parish organization attended the Tuesday meeting of the Diocesan Vestry, and this resulted in a much more sympathetic understanding of all branches of Church work. A system of giving at each vestry meeting a monthly financial statement comparing with that of the previous year was established. A Communion Register was begun. With loyal support from the Vestry, increased attendance was built up by Canon Harding and his assistants, in turn these being Rev. Walter E. Bagnall, Rev. William R. Sproule, Rev. Jeffery Peningsley, and Rev. Walter L. Brown. Constantly the Rector urged better accommodations for the Sunday School, more assistance in teaching, and more family worship in the pews. In 1931 a mission was begun at Remington Park with Rev. Walter Fry in charge. In 1932 broadcasting over CKLW began, and on April 30 of the following year the eleven o'clock service was begun for the first time. Preaching on Hebrews XI: 38. Such broadcasts have continued up to the present, the eleven o'clock service on the second and fourth Sundays in each month now being heard. The results of these efforts of the Rector and his clergy are not to be seen in 1935, when the liabilities were reduced by $4,000 ($2,000 being contributed from the Scott Estate). By 1937 it was possible to pay the Diocesan Budget in full, to reduce the bank loan and mortgage, and to make new needed repairs. In 1938 the annual report presented by Mr. Rigg showed 4,000 members, comprising 900 families.

The outbreak of war in 1939, the Rector said, demanded a spiritual awakening on the part of clergy, officers, and every member of the church. Services of intercession were held daily at noon; later these were held one evening a week, and have been continued up to the present. Canon Harding and Rev. Walter L. Brown strove zealously to bring encouragement and comfort to their parishioners and other Windsorites.

In 1940, Canon Harding left to become Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Ont., and Rev. Captain Walter Brown stepped forward and very ably carried on the work of the parish in addition to his duties as Chaplain of the 2nd Battalion (R) Essex Scottish Regiment, and of the St. Luke's Road Barracks.

Rev. Arthur Jared, then of St. Mark's, gave much assistance, devoting every morning to work in All Saints' parish. Dr. Frank Anderson and Rev. M. A. Garland, both of Huron College, Rev. H. L. Jennings, from Athabasca, and Rev. Dr. Fred Kempster, Philadelphia had charge of Sunday Services in turn from Easter until September 7, 1941, when Rev. R. Charles Brown, M.A., L.Th., a graduate of McGill University and Montreal Diocesan College, began his ministry in All Saints'.

The Rev. Mr. Brown was inducted by Dean Harding on October 2. On December 21, Rev. Francis Watts became assistant. Beginning his work here in a time of great anxiety and stress, the new Rector was at once faced with demands within and beyond the limits of the parish. The withdrawal of grants from England to the Church in Canada challenged All Saints' not only to repay some of the debt of gratitude to the Mother Church for her aid in financing the church during her early days but also to show loyalty and thankfulness to Great Britain for the heavy task which she had so valiantly born, almost alone, during the early part of the war. The need for support of the Western Church was more acute through the severe suffering brought on by drought. The Diocesan Budget was increased by $700 to meet the Western Appeal, and was paid in full. Because many necessary repairs and improvements had been postponed during the preceding difficult decade, the redecoration of the Church and consequent essential repairs in construction, and repairs to the Rectory had to be undertaken. The work was carried through by the Property Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Orville Rolfsen, $5,000 being expended through funds provided from the Scott Estate with the approval of Vestry and Synod.

Energetic, deeply spiritual, with a broad vision of the meaning of the Church Militant, the new Rector early made an impression of vitality in the parish, which has deepened as his ministry has extended into its fifth year. In his first address at the annual meeting in January, 1942, Rev. Mr. Brown said, "The parish is not a point to sit on, but an area to be evangelized. Let us evaluate ourselves not in terms of past glory or present excellence, but in terms of our call and capacity to respond to the call for witness and service." He continued to sound the forward message. In his endeavors he has been earnestly seconded by his devoted and self-sacrificing assistant, Rev. Francis Watts.

Beginning in 1942 to reduce the bank loan and mortgage, All Saint's was able to end the year of 1943 free of all debt. The mortgage was retired through the good offices of the Scott Estate and of the extra effort of the congregation, who retired the last $2,500. The remaining bank loan was paid off, and an increased budget for the Diocese and General Church was overpaid 10% through specific "red side" giving by the Envelope system. This missionary giving was second only to the Cathedral Church in London. The "red side" of envelope-giving has been continuously increased. In 1944 the "Budget for Others" was raised to $3,400, an increase of $500 over the previous year, and was provided through the "red-side" giving without any special appeals, a record unsurpassed in the Canadian Church. $200 was raised for the Diocese of Algoma, and $545 for the Harvest Appeal. In addition, many needed repairs and improvements were accomplished—new eaves, roofimg, thermostat system, kneelers, repairs to Church floors and carpets, for which thanks are due the Parish Workers' Guild, the Servers' Guild, the Boy Scouts, the A.Y.P.A., the Sunday School, and the Property and Grounds Committee.

This generous giving was furthered through the "Every Member Canvass" begun in 1941, and headed by Mr. Allan Lewis, which in its first year added 181 names to the list of subscribers, and through the Rector's encouragement of education in Church history, policy, organization, and advance. In this connection he has encouraged the use of The Canadian Churchman, W.A. Calendars, Forward Booklets, and other literature, and of a library of selected books, especially used in Lent, which he has placed in charge of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. He has emphasized services of dedication of officers and members of Church organizations, and leadership and Church School training. Special leadership Training Courses were conducted by Dr. Harding Priest, G.B.R.E., Eastern Field Secretary. The Rector's course of study in preparation for confirmation has been an inspiration not only to those about to be confirmed, but also to many who were already Church members.

Increasingly the influence and gracious help of the Church have spread out to the many in the parish and community who during the years of anxiety and bereavement have needed her care. Services of intercession are held every Thursday evening, a celebration of the Holy Communion every Wednesday at noon, and frequent other services. The Church is open constantly for prayer and meditation from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The Rector and his assistant have been constantly at the side of those who have received distressing news of their loved ones or are in anxiety concerning them.

In addition to special carols and Midnight Communions on Christmas Eve, and of the Carol Service on the following Sunday (held as early as 1924 under the Rev. Mr. Earp) the Watchnight service each New Year's Eve (mentioned as early as 1898), there was begun a Candlelight Carol Service for City-Wide Young People, and a White Gift Service and Nativity Pageant. This reverent service of praise, prayer, and Scripture, in the heart of which is a pageant of the Nativity, was first presented at Christmas in 1942, by the young people under the Rector's direction, assisted by the sexton, organist, choir, A.Y.P.A., Mr. Cyril Hallam, and Mr. Ted deGuelle. Its purpose is two-fold: to present Page Eleven graphically the great Christmas truth of the Incarnation of the Son of God, and to gather in White Gifts of Love for parish and community Christmas Cheer Work. In 1944 as a result of the service the St. Martin's Guild distributed 24 hampers and 5 baskets for the needy, and sent 51 fruit baskets to sick and shut-ins.

In 1944 a Vacation Day Bible School was begun by the Rector, assisted by Mr. Watts, the congregation providing funds necessary. For two summers this school has been operated for a ten day period under the direction of Miss Helen Sinasac, assisted by Miss Jean Humphries in charge of intermediate department work, and by Miss Joan McCorkell, Mrs. Helen Tidridge, Mrs. H. Brydges, Mrs. Walter Wark, and Miss Ada Timms.

At the annual meeting in January, 1945, the Rector pointed out that the immediate post war days will be days of great trial in economics, government, and social welfare, and he stressed the inescapable necessity which will rest upon this and every other individual church to endeavor to put its own house in order and keep it in order that it may do a realistic job of evangelization and service in the post-war economy and the social and spiritual rehabilitation of returning service people and their families. In the days of great perplexity, industrial unrest, and anxiety upon which we have now entered, the Church, preaching a religion which has to do with life here as well as hereafter, calls all people to Christian action, to promote social justice. Prayers are offered that all may show wisdom, patience, unselfishness, and kindliness to bring about this justice, which demands full employment and security, with adequate honest work rendered in return.

Memorable Occasions in All Saints'

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

While All Saints' Day is observed every year, certain of the anniversary services have been of special interest.

On November 5, 1905, Jubilee and Harvest Thanksgiving Services marking the 50th anniversary were conducted by the Rector, Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, the Rt. Rev. David Williams, Bishop of Huron, being the special preacher. In 1925 the Rev. W. A. Earp, with his assistant, Rev. T. F. Wright, conducted services commemorating the 70th anniversary. Very Rev. Arthur Carlisle, then Dean of Montreal, preached. A congregational supper was held, and a sale of work was arranged by all the women of the congregation, a sale being held here in the W.A., Social Service Club, Chancel Guild, and Church Woman's Aid.

Two weeks of services marked the 75th anniversary in 1930 under the chairmanship of Mr. John M. Docken, Canon Harding was in charge, assisted by Rev. W. R. Sproule. Special speakers were Archbishop Williams, Dean Carlisle, and Rev. C. C. Purton, a former assistant here, then of Mt. Clemens, Michigan.

In 1935, when Canon Harding was Rector, and Rev. J. Billingsley assistant, Bishop Seager and Dean Carlisle were the special preachers. A very important event marked the 80th anniversary, conducted by the present Rector and his assistant, when Rev. W. R. Sproule of the Church of the Messiah, Toronto, as chairman, presented the thought that, "Others have labored, and ye have entered into their labors." On this occasion the act of burning the mortgage was a symbol of the result of the spiritual power and missionary zeal which have characterized the congregation since early days. The mortgage was incurred largely in connection with Parish house extensions some years earlier and maintenance during the difficult depression years. From 1928 to 1941, $10,738.68 had been paid, in addition to interest. In 1945, the debt had been gradually decreased. Now it was possible to retire the mortgage completely, the principal payments being met by a contribution of $4800 from the generous bequests of the late Arthur Scott and his family, and $2500 from some members of the present congregation.

The Rector's Warden, Mr. Allan Lewis, whose family have been active in All Saints' for two generations, presented a replica of the cancelled mortgage, to the People's Warden and Treasurer, Mr. Wilfred Harding, brother of the late Dean Harding, set alight.

MILITARY MEMORIAL SERVICES

Special services have been frequently held in loving memory of individual men who have given their lives in the cause of freedom. In addition, the following services have marked the sacrifices made by men of All Saints'.

1901—Unveiling and Dedication of Memorial to the South African War Veterans.

1923—Unveiling and Dedication of Memorial to the Men from the Congregation who fell in the Great War, 1914-18.

The tablet was unveiled by Col. E. S. Wiggie, and was dedicated by Dean Carlisle. On it were inscribed the names of 40 men who had made the supreme sacrifice. The Tablet was erected by the Women's Patriotic Society of All Saints' Church, and raised through public subscription.

1945—Dedication of Honour Roll carrying the names of the 459 men and women who enlisted during the Second World War; and on August 19, a Dieppe Memorial Service and V.J. Day Thanksgiving Service.

On this occasion the Essex Scottish Regiment, with the 1st Battalion under Lt.-Col. Frederick J. Jasperson and the Reserve under Lt.-Col. J. E. McCorkell, paraded to All Saints', where Hon. Capt. Rev. R. C. Brown, padre of the Second Battalion (R) of the Essex Scottish Regiment, and civilian Chaplain of Windsor Sea Cadets, in offering Thanksgiving for the close of war, remembered especially those who had died at Dieppe and urged dedication of all to the elimination of the things that make for war, challenging his listeners to police, feed, and re-educate the world, including ourselves, and spiritualizing men everywhere.

OTHER SPECIAL SERVICES

Special services have from time to time marked significant events in the life of the nation and of the Church. Some of the most memorable have been the following:

In 1937 and 1938, the Golden and the Diamond Jubilees of Her Most Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria. At the latter service, Rev. J. C. Farthing, then Rector of Woodstock, and later Bishop of Montreal, who endeared himself to All Saints' through his several visits, was preacher.

In 1901 the service in memory of Queen Victoria.

In 1911 a service in honour of the Coronation of His Most Gracious Majesty, George V.

In 1918 a service of Thanksgiving for Victory.

In 1919 the depositing of the Colours of the 99th Battalion, (Essex), Canadian Expeditionary Force, in the presence of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, G.C. Officer Commanding the 99th Battalion, Major A. C. Prince; Adjutant, Captain E. E. Baxter; Rector, Canon Arthur Carlisle.

The colours were deposited "as a token of gratitude to Almighty God, by Whom alone victory is secured, for His Providential care and gracious benediction granted the men and officers of the 99th Battalion in the discharge of duty".

In 1920 the Battalion also dedicated a memorial to the men of all ranks who served under these colours and to afford an inspiration for patriotic service and sacrifice to all who may worship here for all time to come. A copy of the history of the 99th Battalion compiled by Mrs. E. J. Baxter, was presented to H.R.H. the Prince of Wales. An interesting item in the Preacher's Book under this date is the signature of the Prince of Wales, "Edward P.", in the list headed "Preacher".

In 1935 Anglican Boy Choristers received Medals of Office from Dr. Sidney H. Nicholson, founder and principal of the School of Church Music, and former organist of Westminster Abbey. Philip Harding, son of the late Dean Harding, and now in his fifth year at Huron College, received a medal as head boy chorister of All Saints'.

Also in 1935 a service commemorating the 25th anniversary of the accession of H.M. King George V, the Essex Scottish Regiment attending.

In 1936 the Memorial services for H.M. King George V, conducted by Canon Harding, with 1100 present.

In 1937 the Coronation of H.M. King George VI.

In 1938 the reenactment of 18th Battalion, Dean Carlisle preaching.

In 1942 the Service of Intercession for Britain, America, and their Allies. In his sermon, the Rev. Michael Coleman of All Hallows' Church, London, England, cautioned a capacity audience to see to it that the peace which follows this war be a peace of discipline, based on Christ-like principles. An offering was given for the relief work of All Hallows, which has been levelled under Nazi bombs in the 1940 blitz.

In 1943 the Service of Love and Tribute to the late Right Rev. Arthur Carlisle, D.D., D.C.L., I.L.D., Lord Bishop of Montreal, 1939-1943, beloved rector of All Saints, 1910-1921 and also, later, a Day of Remembrance, Thanksgiving, and Dedication commemorating the 50th anniversary of the foundation of the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada.

In 1944 a Service of Memory and Thanksgiving for the late Very Rev. Percival Nathaniel Harding, D.D., beloved Rector of All Saints' 1926-1940, assistant at All Saints', 1912-1917, Rector of St. Paul's, London, and Dean of Huron, 1940-1944.

In 1945 the V. E. Day Services on May 8, conducted by Rev. R. Charles Brown, Rector, and his assistant, Rev. Francis Watts.

Work of the Church Carried on by the Organizations

Thanks to the officers and members of the organized Church life for their vision, wisdom, and courage, a fine, sturdy, service-minded program of Christian activity for people of all ages and interests has been carried on within the church. Sometimes an organization has been developed to meet a particular need, and then has been discontinued; at other times as new activities have developed, one organization has merged into another. Each in turn has rendered its own form of service.

THE CHANCEL GUILD

The Chancel Guild is entirely concerned with the beautifying and preparation of the Holy Table for all services and the furnishing, care, and maintenance of all sacred vessels and linens, all of which is vital to the order and beauty of our worship.

In the early days following the erection of the Church, altar duties were performed, for the main part, by the wife of each incumbent. In the year 1885, however, a number of ladies formed themselves into a small group and assumed these duties, thus becoming the nucleus of what is now All Saints' Chancel Guild. This first group included Mrs. Robert Whyte, Mrs. Fielding, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Jeffers, Mrs. Ramsay, and others, who carried on the work until 1905, when the Guild was reorganized with Mrs. A. M. Grant as President. The next presidents in turn were Miss Benson, Mrs. Fred Laing, Mrs. E. G. Henderson, Mrs. Boomer, and Miss Alice Beers (the late Mrs. C. H. Kent). In June, 1932, Mrs. C. C. Shaw was installed as president of all guild members, and this group has continued to the Guild still functions. Miss Ada M. Timms has served continuously as treasurer since 1910, a unique record of 35 years as an officer.

At the beginning of 1945, the Guild has a membership of 23 active and affiliated members, but during this present year has lost 5 of its number by death. The Guild meets on the last Monday of each month at 8 p.m. (except during the summer) to hold a business discussion and enjoy a social hour. It takes care of all the work necessary in connection with the preparation of the Sanctuary and Altar for regular and special services. Each month, one or two members are appointed for altar duty, which includes the careful arrangement of all flowers for the Holy Table, Chancel, or elsewhere in the church, and the distribution of these flowers after Evensong each Sunday to those members of the parish who are sick at home or in hospital.

In accordance with the Church calendar the seasonal colors are placed on the altar, pulpit, and lectern for each service. The altar is clothed with the Fair Linen and the Credence Table is in the white of the Season. Linen is prepared for the Credence Table for each celebration of the Holy Communion; and the Chalice Veil, Pall, and Purificators are prepared for use by the clergy.

These lovely and expensive linens, some of which were worked by the Sisters of St. John the Divine, in Toronto, others by members of the Guild, including Mrs. J. W. Rickerby and Miss Agnes Rickerby, must be laundered by the members with the utmost care so that they are at all times immaculate. All the beautiful church ornaments—altar cross, processionals, brass flower vases, candles, candelabrum, memorial plaques, etc., must be cleaned and shined each week, as must be the chalice and other sacred vessels employed in the Holy Communion service. The members also decorate the Church for the special festivals of Easter, Harvest Time, and Christmas.

In 1935 a very worthwhile contribution to the appearance of the church was made when the Guild installed the oak panelling in the Sanctuary and Chancel in memory of the late Mrs. Boomer.

During past years funds were raised from various activities such as organ recitals, teas, illustrated lectures, and baked goods sales, but at the present time the organization derives its finances solely from membership dues and donations received out of these funds all necessary altar supplies are purchased.

In 1944 an Altar and an Amice for both Crucifer and Sanctuary Server were completed and were worn by them for the first time on Easter Sunday of that year. The late Miss Alice Johnson, who has done so much fine work for the Guild, did all the work on these vestments, which will be worn at all special Church festivals.

PARISH WORKERS' GUILD

When the late Bishop Carlisle was rector, one of the most important organizations of All Saints', the Social Service Club, was formed through the efforts of Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mrs. J. B. Wilson and Mrs. W. A. Watts. A settlement house was maintained and Miss A. M. Grant was employed as a deaconess and paid by the group.

With the rapid growth of Windsor, the need arose for a community centre that would serve all denominations. The Y.M., Y.W.C.A. was built and seemed to look after the needs of all Churches. The settlement house on Windsor Avenue was closed, and the employment of a deaconess was discontinued.

In 1929 the Social Service Club changed its name to All Saints' Parish Workers' Guild, and Mrs. W. R. Campbell was the president. The group continued to do Social Service work until 1937, when the Church Women's Aid became inactive, and the Parish Workers' Guild assumed the responsibilities of that organization.

The aim of the Guild is to assist the Clergy and the Board of Management in every possible way. Prayer Books and carpet for the Church, and the Guild was organized with Mrs. A. M. Grant as President. The next presidents in turn were Miss Benson, Mrs. Fred Laing, Mrs. E. G. Henderson, Mrs. Boomer, and Miss Alice Beers (the late Mrs. C. H. Kent). In June, 1932, Mrs. C. C. Shaw was installed as president of all guild members, and this group has continued to serve the Guild still functions. Miss Ada M. Timms has served continuously as treasurer since 1910, a unique record of 35 years as an officer.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Another organization which made a fine contribution was the Girls' Friendly Society, which was active at least as early as 1911. Among the active workers were Miss M. A. Dupont, Miss M. Carlisle (Mrs. W. Loveridge), Miss Daisy and Mrs. M. Craig, and Miss Agnes Timms. Contributions were made to the Zenana Medical Missions, to Belgium War Relief, Social Service, and the Poor Fund. In 1917 a Holiday House was opened, with Mrs. W. R. Campbell as Treasurer, which then contained 72 weekly boarders and 82 week-end boarders. A Candidates' Branch was conducted for some time with Miss Elizabeth Norbury as Secretary.

St. Martin's Guild of Service was begun with a nucleus of former members of the Girls' Friendly Society.
Founders and Builders in the Church

THE CHURCHWOMEN'S AID
Among the organizations which have contributed over a long period to the progress of All Saints', outstanding has been the Churchwomen's Aid. It is much regretted that no adequate report of its work is available. It functioned from the early days of the parish, but became very active about 1890, when it apparently shouldered the mortgage debt incurred in the building of the Sunday School, and from that time until as late as 1912, paid part of the principal and the interest every year. Much of the credit goes to Mrs. Robert F. Whyte, who was president as early as 1906 and continued so until her death in May 1934, and to her loyal assistants, who included Mrs. Alfred Wigle, Mrs. Ruthven, Mrs. John Curry, Mrs. H. Browning, Mrs. A. L. Wilkinson, Mrs. F. H. Mann, and Miss Marion Gerard, who was Treasurer for about 20 years. Mrs. George Copeland, Mrs. George Courtenay and Mrs. E. H. Palmer were also active. The Churchwomen's Aid looked after the equipment of the kitchen, furnished veils for women and girl members of confirmation classes, helped with the Church Repairs Fund, and in every possible way assisted the clergy and the Vestry. Funds were raised through annual teas, an "Old Folks Concert," a performance of "Pinafore" given in the Windsor Armories under the direction of Mrs. A. L. Wilkinson, a garden party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Henderson, a musicale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morton, etc.

When the organization became inactive in 1937, its members affiliated with the Parish Workers' Guild.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD OF SERVICE
"By Love Serve One Another."
St. Martin's Guild of Service was organized in November, 1942, following a get-together of some half dozen former members of the Girls' Friendly Society, once an active organization in the Church. The Guild's membership today is 80, and the President is Mrs. Walter Loveridge. Meetings are held on the first Thursday of each month at 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall. The Guild is not a money-making organization, but its members are pledged to help in the following activities: assisting the Clergy by visiting the sick of our parish in hospitals and homes, as well as the families of service men, and through correspondence keeping in touch with those in His Majesty's Service who are not specifically cared for by other branches of the Church's organized life. Practically all of our members work towards keeping on hand a good supply of baby garments from which a gift is given to all new babies arriving in the families of service men in our parish. The smaller children of these men are also remembered at Christmas time, at which season many of our members help in the work connected with the baskets given out to the needy and sick. In October, 1944, the Guild launched a new venture in the giving of a series of "tea's" to welcome the war brides coming to this community, and these have been very well attended. Quarterly corporate Communions are held. The Misses Ada Timms and Ethel Renshaw and Mrs. H. Ringrose have been officers continuously. In 1944, 120 visits were made, 250 letters and 400 cards written to men and women in the Services; 63 gifts made to children.
THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, "A" BRANCH

On October 28, 1890, during the incumbency of Rev. Canon Hincks, All Saints' Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was organized. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Baldwin was present, and in a stirring address, described the hardships endured by the devoted clergy and missionary bishops in their noble work in the Northwest. Mrs. Baldwin afterwards proceeded with the forming of the Branch, describing its objects and reading the bylaws. The motto is "The Love of Christ constraineth us," and the aim is to extend Christ's Kingdom on earth, to pray for missions; to aid in interesting Church women in missionary work; to diffuse missionary intelligence, and infuse missionary zeal among the children of the Church; and also to assist needily missions in need to cooperate with Deanery Diocesan, and Dominion Boards.

At the first meeting, the following were elected as officers: President, Mrs. J. P. Hincks; 1st Vice-pres., Mrs. (Canon) Johnson; 2nd Vice-pres., Mrs. Reynolds; 3rd Vice-pres., Mrs. Horton; Treas., Mrs. Thos. Board; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Scott, who soon moved to Ottawa, and was succeeded by Mrs. Nash; Rec. Sec., Mrs. F. Smith, and Board of Management. Mrs. Soper and Mrs. J. Duck, Sr. 19 members were enrolled: Mrs. Appleton, Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. Christie, Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Mr. John Curry, Mrs. Dow, Mrs. Guillot, Mrs. Leggatt, Mrs. Riggs, and Mrs. Wilkinson. The first year ended with a roll-call of 55, and with bales sent to Rev. J. Brick, at Peace River, and Miss Sherlock, Religious Missionary to Japan, and with contributions to Mrs. Boomer's Educational Fund for Missionaries' children. The next 9 years saw contributions to Zenana Missions, the North, China, Japan, and to Bishop I. O. Stringer. Life memberships were presented to Mrs. Hincks, and to Mrs. Walter Elliott, who became president on Mrs. Hincks's resignation. After Mrs. Elliott moved to California, she supported through All Saints' Branch, a Bible woman in China and one in India. Miss Annie Scott, who for many years was Dorcas Secretary, then 1st Vice-President and Educational Secretary, contributed for the education of an Indian girl. She was made a life member in 1914, as was Mrs. H. Taylor, who supported a Bible woman in India, and an Indian girl in Miss DeBlois' school for many years.

Miss Chadwick, who succeeded Mrs. Elliott as President, endeavored to make all the members, and was presented with a Life Membership upon leaving for Vancouver, by Mrs. Fred C. Bell and Mrs. Eleanor Barrett, who were new members in 1901 and 1903, both proved energetic and loyal workers, Mrs. Bell as Recording Secretary was given a Life Membership in 1905.

Mrs. Barrett with her untiring zeal and understanding of W. A. work probably did more than any other member for the success of All Saints' Branch. In 1919 she became President, and held that office for 14 years. A Diocesan Life Member in 1919, she was made a Dominion Board Life member by the Girls' Branch in 1918, assisted by the Senators. The Educational Fund was her particular interest. A Junior branch, soon to become a girls' branch, was formed in 1909 called the Eleanor Barrett Branch, with Miss Marion Wells as advisor; later a group from this branch was the nucleus of the Alpha Sigma Branch, whose report follows. In 1909 the Babies' Branch was organized by Mrs. Barrett, with Mrs. Cullen as supervisor.

1910 Another period began with Miss Carlisle (Mrs. W. Loveridge) as President. During this time the heartbreaking years of war were passed through, with the members doing patriotic work on the 1st and 3rd Mondays, and at the same time fulfilling their obligations to the W. A.

In 1913 a mission study class was begun with Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Mann, and Mrs. Wilkinson as leaders. When Mrs. Loveridge was resigned in 1919 after 9 years of faithful service, the membership had reached 123. Assisting Mrs. Loveridge as officers were Mrs. E. Barrett, Miss McRae, Mrs. Giles, Mrs. Balfizell, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Bell, and Mrs. Wheelon.

Mrs. Barrett was then president until 1933, and was succeeded by Mrs. Loveridge, who held the office until Mrs. Page Eighteen

A special meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints' at the home of Mrs. A. G. Roberts, August 1, 1940. This was a farewell to Miss Rose Chadwick who was presented with a life membership.

P. N. Harding was elected in 1935, who remained as president until she moved to London. Under her, again, the branch made much progress. The Golden Jubilee of All Saints' W. A., observed by a turkey dinner for 250 guests, had for guest speaker Rt. Rev. Charles Seager, Bishop of Huron, who installed Mrs. Harding as a Life Member of the Dominion Board, the gift of W. A. members. On that occasion two charter members were present, Mrs. Emery, and Mrs. George Copeland. Following Mrs. Harding came Mrs. N. Wilson as president and in 1941, Mrs. W. A. Walsh, who is still in office.

The work to-day includes clothing 2 children at St. Paul's school, bales sent annually to the same school, support to women and children in the foreign and home missions, Western Relief sent in 1934, bales to the Indian Reserve. Mrs. Goss, a most faithful member, sponsored the work for Bundles for Britain, for which very grateful letters have been received. Several students at Huron College have been aided, and the branch has contributed to the church budget. Mother and Daughter banquets and the bazaar given annually are a great help in carrying on our work. St. Andrew's Day is Corporate Communion for the W. A. Present officers are Mrs. W. Walsh, Mrs. J. Gunn, Miss Treble, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Morrish, Mrs. Brain, Mrs. Batchelor; 18 members now on the roll have been active members for over 25 years, attending the meetings regularly, year after year.

Dr. Violet Shaw, a W. A. member, now practicing in Windsor, was medical missionary in Honan for several years. More may be drawn into this missionary work for the sake of Him who went about doing good!

ALPHA SIGMA WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

(SERIAL "B" BRANCH)

The Alpha Sigma W. A. grew out of the Alpha Sigma Sorority, which was organized on January 11, 1927, with Miss Annie M. Grant as Honorary President and Miss Gladys Thompson (now Mrs. W. R. Spronle of Toronto), as President. On November 13, 1928, the Alpha Sigma Girls' W. A. was formally organized, Mrs. A. A. Bice of London, then Diocesan Girls' Secretary, taking charge of the service of admission; Miss d'Avignon became Advisor of the newly formed Diocesan Girls' Auxiliary (McCandless), President of the Missions. Most of the members belonged to the Senior Girls' Bible class. At the end of the first year there were 26 paid-up members. In January, 1934, the Alpha Sigma graduated to senior standing, becoming a "B" branch, Mrs. F. H. Call being President. At the end of 1944 there were 40 paid-up members.

The significance of the name: The two Greek letters corresponding to our "A" and "S" standing for "All Saints' and "Active Service" in our motto, are very appropriate for a W. A. branch, with its motto, "The Love of Christ Constrains Us", and its aim—the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth and the call to each member to full consecration so that we may be used to bring others to Christ.

Regular meetings are held on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings of the month, except during the summer, when informal "get-togethers" are held once a month.

We strive to fulfill our aim in various ways:

Prayer—Intercessory prayers for the peace of the world and missionary work include a special remembrance of our sisters, Fraternity, Mr. C. D. Andrew, whose ministry in different areas in the west we have followed with increasing interest since 1929. During the last few years we have been able to help Mr. and Mrs. Andrew, now stationed at Spruce Lake, Sask., with gifts for his church and their own personal use.

Study—To pray and work intelligently for missions, it is necessary to be well-informed. Therefore we have had mission study since 1929, and speakers on subjects of mission interest.

Finances—We raise money to pay our fixed Pledges to the Diocesan Board in various ways, and through free will offerings. After our Pledges have been paid, we try to help other missionary objectives.

Dorcas Work—A bale is sent each year to St. Paul's Residential School, Carlston, Alberta, and we also pack bales for the white settlers in the West, and provide Christmas gifts for different mission schools.

Social Service Work—The city hospitals, Hospedest, and Essex County San are visited frequently, and magazines, games, and candy distributed. From time to time, assistance has been given to needy families. Since the inception of the plan in 1943, the Branch has co-operated with the city churches in providing services for the women prisoners at the Essex County Gaol, and have visited the inmates there, trying to help them, and providing games, magazines, and fancy work.

War Work—Members have assisted the Red Cross by knitting and canning. When the "Oh Hostess House was opened, we helped to furnish the bedroom there, and members served as hostesses one evening a week for 18 months. Farewell gifts were provided for the soldiers, and on several occasions members of the Armed Forces were entertained. A "Handkerchief Shower" was held for "Bundles for Britain". Snakes have been provided for relatives of our members who are in the Armed Forces, and at Christmas we have remembered our own members who are serving. The Wrens at 64-511 were sent copies of the War Vesper, and parcels and snakes have been sent to our adopted soldier, the son of one of our original members.

Four members are in the Armed Services: Miss Mabel Elkington, a member since 1928, in the Wrens, Mrs. Emma Zielke, in the C.W.A.C., and Miss Dorothy Jones and Miss Catherine Walton in the R.C.A.F. (W.D.).

One of our original members, Miss Jane Simpson (now Mrs. John O'Lone), after graduating from Deaconess House in 1931, served as teacher at Sioux Lookout School in the Diocese of Keewatin for 4 years, and following that, at Chapleau School in the Diocese of Moosonee for a short time until recalling owing to her mother's serious illness. One of our newer members, Miss Mary Claire Heller, was in charge of St. Mary's Auxiliary of the Western Canada Sunday School Caravan Missions for the summer of 1945, working in the Diocese of Qu'Appelle, and is taking training this fall at Deaconess Training School in Toronto.

We have two Diocesan Life Members: Miss Helen d'Avignon, and Mrs. P. H. Call.

Our membership is not confined to All Saints' church members; in as much as we were the only evening Branch in the city for many years, we have attracted members from several other parishes. One of our former members, Miss Evelyn Dixon, was instrumental in forming another evening Branch, St. Mary's "B". Miss Dixon is also in her third year as Deanery Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. F. H. Call, one of our original members, served as Deanery Secretary-Treasurer for 3 years, and has been President of the Deanery since 1943.

THE LITTLE HELPERS BRANCH OF THE SENIOR W. A.

The purposes of the Little Helpers Branch of the W. A. are to help parents and godparents know the responsibilities and privileges laid upon them at the time of the child's baptism, and to awaken in the hearts of little children a love for the Church. It was begun as a Babies' branch first in 1909, under the direction of Mrs. Cullen, and became the Little Helpers in 1917 with Mrs. A. B. Lewis as director.

Whenever possible, a visit is made to the home of the newly baptized child, and those whose parents desire their children to become members are presented with an attractive membership card, with a prayer and a love token, receiving and blessing the little ones. The prayer, "God bless all the missionaries all over the world" is repeated daily in the child's hearing until he is able to say it himself. If parents so desire, a little book is given, the first collected once a year and devoted to the advance of missionary work among children in Canada and overseas.

In October each year a service with an address explaining the work, followed by refreshments, is held for members and all newly baptized children and their mothers.

Today there is a membership of 142, with the majority taking the mite box.

Among those who have given generously of their time and energy to supervise this branch are Mrs. R. A. Priddmore, Mrs. Jasper Gunn, and Mrs. John Gall. Mrs. H. Canston is the present secretary.

GIRLS' BRANCH OF THE W. A.

The Willing Workers Girls' Branch of the W. A., first known as the Ipsilon Dixit Branch, was organized in 1939 through the efforts of Mrs. P. N. Harding, Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, the late Carrie Simpson (now Mrs. W. Cawthorne, Alpha Sigma branch), Mrs. J. Jones (another past president of the Alpha Sigma), and Miss Beatrice Cooper were in turn Advisers to the group. Owing to the inability to secure leadership, the Branch was advised to discontinue in 1941, when in December of that year a re-organization meeting was held, Mrs. J. B. Mitchell being made Adviser. In 1947, under the leadership of Miss Gladys Wilson, the name was changed to P. Epsilon W. A., In 1947 no adviser could be found; so through lack of leaders, meetings were discontinued. Through the four years of existence the Girls' W. A. was active in Deanery affairs, helped in preparing bales, and met all the financial obligations appertaining to the Branch.

It is indeed a great pity that such vital work with the younger teen age girls cannot be carried on. The Church is sadly lacking in organizations for girls of this age. It is not the fault of the Church, but the leadership of these organizations is forthcoming, they cannot function.

JUNIOR BRANCH OF THE W. A.

From time to time a Junior Branch of the W. A. has functioned: one of the earliest being that in 1911, under the presidency of Miss Jessie Dench. As members have grown up to become members of the Girls' Branch, such as the Alpha Sigma, or leadership has been lacking, the Junior Branch has been dormant. Among those who have acted as leaders have been Miss Stokes, Miss Agnes Timms, Miss Mabel Elkington, Mrs. R. Bivay, and Mrs. A. G. Stiles. It is hoped that leadership will also be found to re-organize this branch.
THE BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB

In April, 1939, largely through the efforts of Mrs. J. H. Cameron and Mrs. E. C. H. Windeler, a group of young business women, who could not attend the regular afternoon meetings of the Parish Workers' Guild, organized the Junior Club. The original membership was 44, and it was felt that they would assist and co-operate with the Senior Guild. The first officers were Miss Mary Davis, President, Miss Nettie O'Neil, Vice-President, Miss Mary Gall, Secretary, and Miss Dorothy James, Treasurer. The next year Miss O'Neil became president, holding the office for 2 years. From the proceeds of a bridge party, the organization, now increasing in members, donated $25 then the following year $17 was donated to the Smokes Fund for All Saints' boys Overseas, and another $50 to the Guild. Financial matters were beginning to interest the group, which, now became known as "The Business Women's Club."

In May, 1942, Miss Ruth Carrington became president. Contributions of knitting or sewing were made to "Bundles for Britain," another bridge party and a rummage sale made possible gifts of chocolates to 41 boys of All Saints' now overseas and $50 to the Guild. Easter breakfast was served to the members of the choir, clergy, and others.

In June, 1943, Miss Helen Sinasc became president, holding the office for 4 years. Corporate Communion was now inaugurated for the club, whose membership had increased to 22. The club sponsored another bridge party, an organ recital in the church, presenting Miss Muriel Galley of Toronto, at a tea Edward Hotel, entrusting Mr. George Haddad, and a spring tea in the Rectory parlors. The following donations were made: $150 for the Overseas Smokes Fund; $250 to the Parish Workers' Guild, $25 to the mortgage fund of the church, $10 for the Windsor Playgrounds Association, $25 to the Church School, and $5 to the Arctic Fund. The Club also became affiliated with the Local Council of Women.

In June, 1945, the following were elected as officers: Mrs. Walter Wall as President; Misses Enid Logan and Nettie O'Neil as Vice-Presidents; Jean Humphries, Secretary; Margaret Power, Treasurer; Marion Daniel and Jean Matthews, Counsellors.

THE CHAPEL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The first Girl Guide Chapel in Canada, (believed to be the only one) was officially dedicated on June 9, 1935, by Rev. Canon P. N. Harding, Rector, on the occasion of the annual Guide Church parade. Made possible by the beneficence of Mr. Arthur Scott and Miss Annie Scott, whose generosity is largely responsible for the happy life of the Company, active in the church since 1911, are perpetuated through the Chapel. It is in the north transept of All Saints' Church. It was built and furnished entirely by Girl Guides and their friends. The use of all services and that of the Church as early Communions—"for all who seek beauty and tenderness, to be used for prayer and meditation at all times".

The chapel is complete with altar, frontal, and beautifully embroidered altar and credence cloths, kneeling cushions, a magnificent chalice veil from the Cathedral of St. Saviour, on the banks of the Moscow River in Moscow, Russia, brought as a gift by Mrs. John A. Willis, for many years a lieutenant of Company 3, and now on the Local Association and the Provincial Council of Girl Guides. Upon the Communion Rail is an illustrated copy of the laws and prayers of the Guides, the gift of the Guides from Windsor, England. Mrs. G. R. Routledge, provincial commissioner, was present for the dedication. Following the ceremony at the Church, a presentation was made at the City Hall Park to Miss Maude Longley, then district commissioner, and now divisional treasurer, in honor of her 21 years in Guiding, and Mrs. Stanley Wallace, Divisional Commissioner for Essex and Kent, received congratulations upon having been awarded the Jubilee Medal. Miss Beatrice Cooper (Shakespeare) then captain of Company 3, was presented with a book as a memento of the historic dedication of the Chapel, and Mrs. W. R. Campbell, a member of the Dominion Commissioner's staff, was presented with a Chapel, which provided the lighting system. Mr. C. Clarke and Mr. Norwood are responsible for the beautiful carvings which feature the chapel, and the late Major John A. Willis gave the architectural plans.

THE BROtherHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew originated in a Young Men's Bible Class at St. James' Church, Chicago, and was first organized on St. Andrew's Day, Nov. 30, 1883, its object being to extend Christ's Kingdom among young men. Two rules were adopted—firstly, to stick to work, and secondly, to bring in a weekly offering for the work, and a weekly effort to bring at least one young man within the hearing of the Gospel. The movement spread rapidly. In 1886 the first Canadian Convention was held in 1890, when the Canadian Council was formed. Chapters have also been formed in England, Scotland, New Zealand, Bermuda, and the West Indies. The Junior Chapter was organized in 1906, its object being that the future of the boy lies largely in his training, until that the boy in the "teen" ages is full of desire to work. To try to keep him attached to the Church by doing something for him is a mistake. The better way is to give him a worthwhile task which will appeal to his imagination. As soon as a boy learns a religious truth, he should put it into practice in his everyday life. When boys become members of the Brotherhood, they are given a task, training them to do what they can, may, and will. When they go out into the world, they will have the ability to do that task, and to do it well. The Brotherhood has been a valuable influence in our Church, and we are thankful that some are returning and that others are coming up from the Senior Boys' class in the Church School.

JUNIOR CHANCEL GUILD

In September, 1935, the Junior Chancel Guild was established to care for the Choir of the Good Shepherd and to learn the duties connected with the care of the Chancel. Its members are the confirmed members of Company 3 and under the older members of the Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd. From its inception, monthly corporate communions followed by breakfasts have been held. The average attendance for the ten years has been 18, and the average membership, which changes from year to year, about 28. The gifts of flowers on the altar have been taken by members to hospitals for the children's wards and to sick children. The members as part of their duty write letters of thanks to the donors who are the Guild Companies and interested friends. Various subjects have been studied during the years, such as the architecture and symbolism of the church and its windows. The organizations of the church were explained by officers of the various groups.

Sharing the work of the Guild, our Brownies dust the pews and the pictures outside the communion rails, and the Guides themselves care for the frames on the rail and the trefoil of the Company flag in the sanctuary.

While there are many gifts among the furnishings of the Chapel, the gift from the Guild itself was the memorial cover and frontlet of crimson for the men of the Essex Scottish to commemorate their courage at Dieppe, and especially that of Major John A. Willis. A particular case has also been the Honour Roll of the names of 16 members of the Guide Companies. Since several of the members went overseas, fresh flowers have been kept beneath the roll and parcels sent Overseas to those particular members. Of the sixteen, eight are members of this Parish.
The Church Choir, 1945

Front Row: Marjorie Heisman, Laura Cox, Emily Gates, Adrianne Brown, Ronald Heisman, C. Atkins, Mrs. S. Aldworth, Emily T. Carter, Ellen Metcalfe, Freda Lord, Mrs. A. G. Stille.
Absent: Mrs. E. Ambrose, Mrs. E. H. Carter, Mrs. G. Wainless, Miss Mary Duck, Edward Jamison, Harry Maegregor, Church Officers: Jack Wells, Alan Hickey.
Other boys' choristers: Charles Atkins, Leonard Cooke, Charles Heisman, Gordon Ringrose, Ted Bloodel, Donald Fox, Kenneth Fox, Alex Hamilton, Cameron McRae, Jimmy McRae, Kenneth O'Neill, Wilfred Pidgen, Bob Santos, Billy Waters, Ronald Holdsworth.

All through the long history of All Saints' Church, the Choir has contributed greatly to the beauty and dignity of the services. Not only have its members led in the service of praise and worship at all regular morning and evening services, but also have given unstintingly of their time and talent on special occasions, for Church School concerts, etc. The work has involved, in addition to the Sunday services, year in, year out, weekly rehearsals, and special practices of the boys' choir. Many have sung continuously for several years, but now in the choir for the past 57 years, deserves special mention. For many years, too, Miss Gertrude Chase has assisted in vesting the boys for regular and special services. Over a long period Miss Alice Johnson acted as choir mother.

Miss Fanny Dewson, daughter of the Dr. Dewson who was so instrumental in the building of the church, was first choir mother. His Honor Judge Horne was responsible for the first vesting of the choir in 1882. For many years Dr. R. Carney and Mr. E. G. Henderson acted as Benefactors for the organization, giving generously of their time as well as financial assistance. Mr. Henderson showing particular interest in the members of the Boys' section. For a long period Mr. John Gail served as choir president.

Choir Masters and Organists include the following: Mr. Mundy, Mr. Carter, Miss Smith, Miss McCrae, Messrs. Gilmore, Moore, Brown, H. G. Shaw, Chashaw, Self, Wilkinson, Dr. Davies, J. G. Woodcock, M. A., and Mrs. Francis, Messrs. Bernard Mann, George Hoole, Whorlow Bull, Edward Greenhal, Miss Francis Greiner, and Mr. G. B. Davies, the present organist and choir director.

Those who have generously assisted temporarily have been Miss Elizabeth Crampton, Messrs. Wiem. Holmes, A. L. Meach, Sidney Tarleton, Miss Evelyn Dixon and Mrs. J. H. Marsden.

Many who have been members of All Saints' Choir have been, and are connected with the advancement of this area. Two at least have filled the Mayor's chair in Windsor and Walkerville, and others have been found in professional, industrial and business life of the community. The ladies have always accepted their responsibilities in respect to patriotic work, such as performed by the Red Cross, and other organizations doing a commendable work.

Those associated with the Choir have also contributed largely to the development of choral singing in the community. The late dynamic Whorlow Bull, who led the choir for some years, inaugurated and for years directed the Scottish Choir which has earned for itself a high esteem in musical circles. Another organization which has found a niche in the music world is the Windsor Male Ensemble, which was begun by the late Edward Greenhal, another former choir leader in All Saints' Church. Although the Male Ensemble is composed of members of various denominations (as is the Scottish Choir) it is directed by Mr. Gethin B. Davies, the present director of All Saints' Choir, and its rehearsals are held in the parish hall at All Saints'. Associated also is the Women's Choral Group. During the years, the choir has been responsible for many beautiful cantatas, particularly those given on Good Friday and on Easter Sunday.
MOTHERS' CLUB

Because church attendance for soldiers' wives with small children is very difficult when fathers are off to war, Mrs. W. R. Campbell originated the idea of a Mothers' Club in 1917, so that mothers could come to a week day service and bring their children who were too young to go to school. With the mothers' club enjoyed a religious service including hymns, prayers, and Bible Study, the children were entertained by young girls who did this as part of their war service. Miss A. Grant, deaconess at this time, led the worship service, while Misses Navarre and Allworth cared for the children. At the close of the meeting the mothers enjoyed a friendly chat over a cup of tea and brown bread. The children had already had cookies and milk.

The club grew from its original 12 members to about 75, and sometimes there would be as many as 30 children. When English girls who had married Canadian soldiers in England began coming out to Canada, they were made welcome at the Mothers' Club. As the club grew, it took on some responsibilities. Missionary work was done through the Woman's Auxiliary by giving a yearly contribution of about $30 towards the clothing of a child in one of the Mission schools.

Four collection plates were given for use in the church as well as Hymn and Prayer books. More recently Hymn books have been given as needed, and a pair of glass crucets for use at the Communion Service. Bibles have also been given to the Sunday School. A special Easter collection is always given to the church, and memorial flowers on Mothers' Day. At the request of the rector, dinners have been prepared and served on several occasions.

The 25th Anniversary of the Mothers' Club was celebrated by a special church service on November 29, 1942. An Honor Roll dedicated to the war service now hangs in the Sunday School room where the meetings are held. All Saints' Honor Roll for World War II contains names of some of the children of the original members of the Club; so the special war work during the past five years has been to send parcels to these boys as well as many other church boys. Many grateful letters have been received, all of the boys glad that the church had not forgotten them. Among the prized letters are some from the late Capt. the Rev. Walter L. Brown, a frequent visitor of the Mothers' Club.

Officers of the club have been as follows:
- Presidents—Miss Grant, Miss Hester Wrong, Mrs. Stephen Roberts, Mrs. P. N. Harding, and Mrs. R. F. Sheppard.
- Secretary-Treasurers—Mrs. H. Cooper, Mrs. H. Richards, and Mrs. Maracle.

Mrs. Chas. Carroll, one of the original members of the club, served as acting president until the appointment of Mrs. A. Crosswhite in October, 1945.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

Other organizations which functioned from time to time include a Boys' Club, begun during the time that the Rev. Walter Craig was assistant, and directed by Mr. D. W. F. Nichols, still fondly remembered by many boys who cherish the memory of evenings spent under his direction in the parish hall, or at his home, sharing his library. The We-Ne-Ju Club for young men under the leadership of Canon Harding, whose members nearly all went into the Servers' Guild or the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, was an outstanding piece of work and a great tribute to the late beloved Dean.

Various other clubs for boys have exercised their influence over the young manhood of the parish, notably the Maple Leaf Club under the direction of the Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which was active in 1909, 1910; a Boys' Club organized "to develop the fourfold nature of the boy's life' under Canon Carlisle, Rev. R. J. Lee, Messrs. George Merrifield, Sr., Alex. Craig, Horace Edgar, and Mr. Wheelton, which also seems to have been affiliated with the Junior Brotherhood; and a club organized for boys during the years; and The Blue Arrows, with Mr. German Jeffers as Mentor, which provided physical activities and Christian leadership for boys for a period of years, its work being noted in the reports of 1924 and 1925.
ALL SAINTS' CHURCH SCHOOL

The Sunday School was organized when the church first opened and met in the church and later in what is now the church office. Following that, the large room of the Parish House has been used, and as additions were made to the building, the Sunday School extended its departments until it is now necessary to use all the rooms at the 3 o’clock session. The Senior boys and girls meet at 10 in the morning. The Primary Department for children up to 9 years, has always been a separate department, and in 1931 an Intermediate Department was organized for children from 9 to 12. This is now known as the Junior Department. Separate classrooms would be the ideal arrangement, and this may be accomplished when the parish hall is remodelled.

In 1932 the name was changed from Sunday School to Church School.

Teachers’ meetings are held regularly on the second Monday of each month.

While the present roll numbers 275, the problem of transportation in wartime has affected the attendance. Also many children are attending Sunday School in their own neighborhoods. As this is a down-town church, the roll is continually changing. In 1912 it was as high as 500; in 1928 it was 400, while in 1940 it had dropped to 300.

In 1928 our annual collections were as high as $540, but had decreased steadily to $145 in 1940 when an increase was noted, and in 1944 they reached $400. The Envelope system introduced in 1931 was temporarily discontinued, but resumed in 1944. This tends to increase the collection and at the same time trains the children in regular systematic giving.

An annual summer picnic has been held for many years to Bob-Lo, Put-in-Bay, Tashmoo, or the local parks, and at Christmas awards for attendance are presented and an entertainment provided. The presentation of awards has been in June for the past two years, and pins for regular attendance have been given.

Many of our former pupils and teachers have served in the Armed Forces, and some have made the supreme sacrifice.

Former members of the Church School are now in the ministry, these include Rev. John Bushel, Rev. George and Rev. Harry Merfield, Rev. John Duncan, and Rev. Bernard Buley, Alex Newell and Philip Harding, former pupils, are at present students at Huron College preparing for the sacred ministry.

Missionary Work—While little is known about the early projects of the Sunday School, Lenten Mite boxes from early days have been given out to the children, and these funds used for missionary purposes. Special Sundays have been held and when the collections have been given to missions. The amount realized from the Mite boxes in past years has varied from $55 to $270, being determined partly by conditions and partly by the project which encourages the children to give and emphasizes the importance of the Lenten season of the Church’s year. In 1933 the Bursary Fund for the support of students at Huron College was started, and all Saints’ Church School has contributed to this form of missionary work. The original idea was one cent per pupil, but this has been increased from time to time. In 1941, a child (Caroline Dixon) at St. John’s Residential School at Chapleau was adopted, and her support, which is $30 a year, is paid from pennies which the pupils bring on their birthdays. In 1942 another child (Ronald Howard) from the same school was also adopted, and the collections during Lent are used for his support. For the past 4 years a White Gift Sunday has been observed in December, and the gifts sent to the children in St. John’s Indian Residential School, with special gifts for our two adopted children and partly by the project which encourges the children to give and emphasizes the importance of the Lenten season of the Church’s year. The CHURCH FOR CHILDREN

The Church for Children was organized in the fall of 1939, under the leadership of the late Captain Walter Brown, then assistant of All Saints’. Children assemble in the Parish Hall during the singing of the sermon hymn. Meeting at this time was purposely arranged to allow parents with small children to attend the morning services. The average attendance each Sunday is 35. The chief purpose of Junior Church is to aid the all-important task of training children in Christian Worship—to awaken in the child the desire and ability to worship God, and bring worship as far as possible within the capacity and comprehension of the children. The age of children attending Junior Church is from 3 to 12 years. The original staff consisted of Miss Isabel Parry, Miss Inez Carter, Mr. Jack Artingstall, and Miss Gladys Wilson. Miss Wilson has continued to lead Junior Church, and this year is assisted by Sylvia Harris, and May Lord.

THE CHURCH FOR CHILDREN

Many people have served the Church as teachers and officers in the Church School in the last ninety years. While it is impossible to name all, a few are listed—John McCrae, Stephen Lusted, Cyril Robinson, O.E., and Howard Fleming, T. Beverley Smith, John Whyte, Mrs. Eleanor Barrett, Alex. Craig, Ralph Sheppard, Horace Edgar, the Misses L. and A. Scott, Marion and Julia Gerard, Helen d’Avignon, Agnes Holton, Kathleen Henderson (who began the Fond Roll in 1911), A.M. Gyles, Anna Dupont, Lottie Clemens, Elizabeth Norbury, Elizabeth Crampton, Jessie Dench, Marions Wells, Mr. Wm. Carter, Mrs. E. G. Morley, Mrs. A. Mason.

Miss Marion Daniel, who has been on the staff for the past 15 years, has served as superintendent of the Junior Department for the last 6 years.

Miss Margaret Benfield has been the superintendent of the Primary Department since 1917.

Miss Erna Alexander has been on the staff for the past 25 years, having been a teacher and the secretary, and succeeding Miss Vine Alexander as Treasurer 14 years ago. Miss Alexander had held that office for 7 years.

The Clergy have acted as Superintendents of the Main Department for the past few years.
ANGLOICAN YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSOCIATION

For those who know little or nothing of the A.Y.P.A. as a whole, it may be well to recount a little of its history. The A.Y.P.A. was founded in the year 1903 by the Rev. Canon Brown of Paris, Ontario. Its growth was rapid, transforming from a Diocesan to a Provincial and finally to a Dominion Organization with branches in practically every Diocese in Canada, and developing also in Great Britain and in isolated branches in several other parts of the Empire. The aim of the A.Y.P.A. is to promote the religious, social, and intellectual welfare of members through its fourfold platform: Worship, Work, Fellowship, and Edification. The motto of the association is "For Christ and the Church".

All Saints' Branch is mentioned in reports as having been reorganized in 1906, with a membership of 55. Its charter is dated 1913. In 1926 Essex Deanery Local Council was formed, and All Saints' branch was affiliated. The Council consists of representatives from all A.Y.P.A.'s in the Deanery. In 1934 the organization was for the second time within its history disbanded, but shortly afterwards re-organized under the leadership of Rev. J. Billingsley. Both the organization and its membership progressed favorably. With the outbreak of war in 1939, many of the boys were lost to the armed forces, and during the years of war, 40 of the membership enlisted for military duty. Of these, four paid the supreme sacrifice, and one is reported as missing in action.

The Guild meets every Wednesday evening at 7:15, for an hour in their own room, which was furnished by different members of the congregation. This room is shared with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. After business is transacted, there is a period for the study of different phases of the Church's history under the direction of the Rector, and of Rev. Mr. Watts.

In 1942 the Guild organized a scrap paper collection. Tons of paper have been collected under the direction of George Hawkins, Senior Server, and with the generous help of Mr. Allan Lewis, who has provided a truck and driver for the monthly collections which the members make.

2ND WINDSOR SCOUT TROOP

Scouting is explained as character-forming recreational education, carried on as far as possible in the out-of-doors. As originally planned by the late Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Boy Scout movement, Scouting aims to develop 4 things: character in the individual, practice of personal health and cheerful happiness, handicraft, and a sense of duty to one's neighbor. The complete Scout Group includes the Wolf Cub Pack for boys of from 8 to 12, the Scout Troop for boys 12 to 17, and the Rover Crew for boys of 17 and over.

Scouting was first introduced into All Saints' in 1910 through the effort and good-will of Col. E. S. Wigle, who is Honorary Commissioner of Windsor District, Hon. Vice-President of the Provincial Council for Ontario, and a member of the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scout Association.

The 2nd Windsor Scout Troop was therefore organized at that time. The first Scoutmaster of the Troop was Mr. Lewis Mason, who was later assisted by Mr. Geo. Merifield, Senior. It is the oldest Scout Troop continuously in existence in Windsor. In 1924 a Cub Pack was formed, and in 1932 a Rover Crew began. From 1924 to 1939 the work in All Saints' was directed by Scoutmaster D. W. F. Nichols.

The Boy Scouts meet in the Parish Hall every Friday evening at 7:15 p.m. under the leadership of C. K. Evans, assisted by Wm. Bruce. Each meeting carries out a program which is not only recreational in part, but religious, educational, and instructive.

The Scouts are called upon to do public service from time to time, such as salvage work, ushering, assisting in traffic, etc. Boy Scout Week throughout Canada is observed in February as a memorial to the Founder, Lord Baden-Powell, and to stimulate better Scouting.

Another Scouting function observed in Windsor is Annual Scout Apple Week, held in October. Beginning with Scout Sunday, groups attend their own church. Open House Night is held in the Parish Hall, and Saturday is Annual Scout Apple Day, when every cub, scout, rover, and leader, and committee man is "on the job" selling apples.

Many former All Saints' scouts have joined the King's forces during World War I and II, among them being Capt. Arthur D. Mothersill, prisoner-of-war, Lt.-Col. John H. Mothersill, E.D., Major Barton Mothersill, M.C., Col. Geo. Y. Masson, and Major Charles Clarke, all of the Essex Scottish Regiment.

Rev. George Merifield and Rev. Harry Merifield, sons of a former Scoutmaster, were also former Scouts.

In 1943 a group committee was formed to assist the scouting movement within the Church. Mr. Paul Robarts is the chairman.

2ND WINDSOR WOLF CUB PACK

Lord Baden-Powell, the founder of Scouting, realized during years of battle the destruction and pain caused by man's intolerance to man. He felt that man's energies could be better directed towards creating goodwill and fellowship, which would ultimately react as a medium to promote world peace. Thus the idea of Scouting was born, and was fully materialized when in 1910 Baden-Powell gave his "Scouting for Boys" to the world.

Cubbing carries out the Scout teachings in a play way to hold the interest of the boy 8 to 12. To catch the imagination of the young boy, jungle atmosphere based on the Jungle Story by Rudyard Kipling is used throughout the Cubbing program. It is from this story that the various Pack names such as Akela, Baloo, Baghatrix, Mowgli, and others are adopted. Along with his older brother, the Cub is always ready to "Do His Best." During this war period the Cub and Scout have contributed their energies towards service work in the Windsor Area including book collection for the Active Service libraries, assisting Red Cross, Victory Loans, Windsor Salvage Committee, War Production Shows, War Veterans, and other similar agencies.

At present the Pack is at full strength, which is 36 boys. Meetings are held in the Parish Hall every Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m. under the leadership of Miss Ruth Watts, assisted by Miss Florence Fowler, scoutmaster. During the summer time when outdoor activities are planned.

GIRL GUIDE COMPANY NO. 3

In 1911 the first Girl Guide Company in All Saints' Church was organized by the late Bishop Carlisle. Miss Helen d'Avignon was the first Captain. Some of the early Guides were: Miss N. Gerard, Mrs. Mona Mair Emery, Mrs. Helen Dewar Anderson, Mrs. Dorothy d'Avignon Graham, Miss Madge Wigle. Character training and good citizenship have always been the aim of the Guide movement, and Company 3 has well exemplified these. After the first Great War, the Company was full of senior members, who became the 1st Windsor Rangers, while the remaining smaller Guides became Company 3, and Miss Maude Longley, who has grown up in the Company, took on as Captain. This Company is one of the oldest in the Dominion and has a long and distinguished record of service. It has always been broad minded in its outlook and has included members of all creeds and colour from time to time, though most of its leaders have been devoted members of the Parish. They have been keen on international friendships, being well situated to entertain American Girl Scouts.

Through both wars their services have been amazing, with knitting and sending out things to the front for the British children in this last. They have contributed of their means from time to time to church activities, chiefly at S.S. affairs, donating chairs, candy bags for Christmas treats, etc., and gave the Chapel of the Good Shepherd to the church from a bequest made to them from the Scott Estate. The Company meets on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 8:45 p.m. under the leadership of Mrs. L. Smith and Miss D. Gillespie.

BROWNIE PACK NO. 3

Brownies, girls between the ages of 7 and 11, who are the Junior branch of the Girl Guides Association, aim to develop good character, to become good citizens, obedient and self-reliant, and to be loyal to God and the King, and thoughtful to others. Through teaching them services useful to the public, handicrafts useful to themselves, and promoting their physical development, the Brownies are being trained mentally, physically and morally to fulfill the duties that lie before them as Guides of to-morrow.

No records are available of any previous Pack in All Saints' Church, but it is believed that there was a group approximately in 1920. Miss U. Weller was Brown Owl in 1920. The present Pack was formed September, 1942, under the leadership of Mrs. T. Warner as "Brown Owl," and Miss Lillian Walker as "Tawny Owl." Before this, Margaret Benfield directed a Pack for some years.

In June, 1943, Miss Walker enlisted in the R.C.A.F. (W.D.), and was replaced by Miss Blair Baxter with Miss Mary Ward assisting.

War services have been donations of money raised by Brownies to buy clothing for the bale for Britain three times yearly. Other services rendered include donations to Sunday School to help buy equipment, flowers for Guide Chapel, assistance by dusting the Guide Chapel, and making paper bags for hospitals.
Home Missionary Activities

1873—The Rev. John Hurst and later Canon Caulfield held afternoon services at St. Mary's Church, Walkerville, until the appointment of the first incumbent there in 1874.

1893—Due to the rapid growth of Windsor it was felt that the west end of the parish needed further ministrations. Rev. R. S. W. Howard was appointed assistant to Canon Hincke with the special responsibility of ministering to the west end. Services began on Ascension Day, 1893 were held regularly by Mr. Howard and succeeding assistants, Revs. J. B. Smith, C. C. Purton, I. M. Webb, H. H. Tancock, and C. F. Westman. Having been the mission church of All Saints' for twelve years, the Church of the Ascension was constituted a separate parish in 1905.

1917—Some years later the subdividing of the Davis farm resulted in a great influx of population in that eastern part of the parish. Services were started for the people far away from the parish church. After services had been held for two years in various loaned and rented buildings All Saints' Vestry erected St. George's Memorial Chapel at Moy Avenue and Niagara Street in 1919. The assistants at All Saints', Revs. R. Lee, J. Chapman, J. Tully, W. Craig, and Mr. George Merfield, lay reader, carried on the mission for five years. Then it was decided that St. George's congregation and the St. George's Church were too strong to move on further progress. So by mutual agreement parish boundaries were settled and terms of repayment agreed upon. St. George's was constituted a separate parish in September, 1922.

1922—Missionary spirit was evidently so strong in All Saints' that the following Sunday after St. George's became independent a Sunday school and evening service were started in the Church of the Nazarene through the kindness of their pastor and congregation. This "New South End Mission" of All Saints' was felt necessary because of the large numbers of new homes being built in the southern part of the parish. A few months later Victoria Avenue School was used for the services conducted regularly by Mr. George Courtemay and other laymen until the Vestry purchased a site at Victoria Avenue and Tecumseh Road in 1924. The frame structure erected there in 1925 under the direction of Mr. George Merfield was dedicated as St. Paul's Church. In 1926 St. Paul's was constituted a separate parish. The assistants at All Saints' who ministered to the new congregation were Revs. J. Tully, T. F. Wright, W. Jones-Bateman.

Shortly after St. Paul's became independent, the first services were held in the south-eastern part of the parish. Several prominent laymen, notably Mr. German Jeffers and Mr. George Merfield, carried on the services. The next year, 1927, a former store at Tecumseh Road and Hall Avenue was dedicated as St. David's Mission. For five years the mission was served by the assistants at All Saints', the Rev. W. E. Bagnall and the Rev. W. R. Sproule. In 1932 St. David's was constituted a separate parish with Rev. W. R. Sproule as the first rector. This parish is now known as the Church of St. Andrew.

In 1931 laymen from All Saints' started holding services at Remington Park. This mission was known as Holy Trinity. Then Rev. Walter Fry was appointed to carry on the work as an assistant at Canon's Park. The next year All Saints' vestry felt that Holy Trinity could be more effectively administered by the rector of St. Stephen's, Sandwich South, and relinquished responsibility for the mission.

Thus for two periods continuously, 1893 to 1905 and 1917 to 1932, the mother church, All Saints', fostered mission churches in newly-developing parts of the original parish which included the whole of the old city of Windsor. Each of these daughter churches is now a self-supporting parish.

Extending the Influence of All Saints'

Beginning with A. Grassett Smith who after being a member of All Saints' from the time he was 8 years old, was ordained in that Church in 1886, a number of young men and women who have had their early training in All Saints' have gone into the ministry or into other fields of Church activity.

The Rev. John Bushel, who as a young man of sixteen came from Rostrevor, County Down, Ireland, to live with his uncle, Rev. J. Crampton, in Sandwich, and was trained for the Church in the old Central School, the present city hall. During his residence here, from 1883 to 1893, he was very active in the Church. In 1892 he went to Trinity College, Toronto, graduating in 1898, and was ordained that same year in St. Alban's Cathedral, Toronto. He was with Archdeacon MacKenzie in Brantford for four and a half years, and one year with Canon Dann at St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Ontario. From 1905 to 1931, he was rector at St. Clements, Riverdale, Toronto, and then became Director of Chaplaincy in the Public Institutions in Toronto, particularly serving in the Sanatorium at Weston. He retired in 1941, and is still living in Toronto. To share with the congregation of All Saints' in the joy of their ninetieth anniversary, Mr. Bushel came from Toronto to be with us for all the services on the first Sunday of our anniversary week, and delighted many members of the parish with his reminiscences of early days and former members of the parish.

Among others have been Dr. Violet Shaw, who after graduating in Medicine from the University of Toronto in 1922, went as a missionary to St. Paul's Hospital, Kewaskum, Ontario, where she stayed for three years. Then, in 1927, when Communism overran that part of China, and the missionaries were for a time driven out, Dr. Shaw returned to Windsor, where she has since practised.

Another is the Rev. John L. Duncan, who was very active in Sandy Neck and A.Y.P.A. Mr. Duncan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Duncan, graduated from Huron in 1936, went at once to St. Pancras, London, England, where he was Curate in a parish numbering 13,000 souls. Returning to Canada in 1939, he was Rector at Delhi, Ontario, for 2 years, and then at Leamington for about a year, when he became Pastor in the Canadian Army, going overseas after 6 months. He was in England with the troops until the invasion of Normandy, then was in Belgium, Holland, and Germany. At present he is back in Holland.

Two brothers, sons of Mr. George Merfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Merfield, Sr., both went into the ministry. Rev. George A. Merfield graduated from Huron College and was ordained Priest at All Saints' Church in 1926. After being rector of Merlin, Ontario, and Erin, for three years, he went to Michigan, serving in Marine City, Ferndale, and since 1937, at Grace Church, Mt. Clemens. During his ministry Grace Church has doubled in size and attendance, cleared off all debts, purchased a new rectory, and at present has architects drawing up plans for a new church.

Rev. Henry E. Merfield, who graduated from Huron College and was ordained Priest in 1927, also in All Saints' Church, is particularly remembered for his tireless, devoted work in connection with the Mark's Soup Kitchen in the very difficult days of depression. For three years, seven days a week, over 1300 people came every day to eat free meals there. Mr. Merfield left St. Mark's to become rector of Holy Trinity Church in Ingersoll. During his ministry there the Church has cleared of all debt, and a Junior Church with an average attendance of 100 established.

Leonard William Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Potter, after graduating formerly a clergyman of All Saints', after graduating from Huron in 1929, went out with the Bishop of Athabasca and was ordained as priest in Winnipeg. For 3 years he was stationed at Berwyn, Alberta, serving a parish of 20,000 square miles. Then he went to England, and has been for several years at St. Katherine's Vicarage, Bristol. Bristol was one of the main targets of the blitz, and St. Katherine's was bombed on Good Friday, 1940. On August 15, 1929, Mr. Potter conducted the first service in what was to grow to be St. David's Parish, later the Church of St. Andrew.

Assisting Mr. Potter at St. David's was Bernard George Bulley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bulley of All Saints. Graduating from Huron College, he was ordained in 1933. After assisting at Cronyn Memorial Church, London, he was given charge of Atwood, Ethna and Hendry, and later of Kenwood, Adelaide and Warwick. He is now rector of Trinity Church, Port Credit, Ontario.

Miss Jane Simpson, a charter member of the Alpha Sigma Branch of the W. A., after graduating from the Deaconess School in 1931, served as teacher at Sioux Lookout School in the Diocese of Keewatin for 3 years and then for a short time at Chapleau School in the Diocese of Moosonee until she was recalled by the illness of her mother. Now Mrs. John O'Lone, she is living in Howell, Michigan.

Mr. Alex James Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Newell, very active in A.Y.P.A., and the Servers' Club, is now in his third year at Huron College, in training for the ministry, and spent 4 months this past summer in the Ojibway Mission in Moosonee. This year he is assisting the Rev. C. W. Foreman at St. John the Evangelist in London, Ontario.

Mr. Philip Harding, son of our late beloved Rector, is now in his fifth year at Huron College, in training for the ministry. At All Saints’ "Phil" was very active in choir, A.Y.P.A., and in Sunday School, for some time acting as pianist. In 1943 he had charge of services during the summer at Walter's Falls and Bognor. At present he frequently assists with services throughout the diocese, but when he is in London on Sundays, he assists with the services at the Cathedral.
THE CHURCH SERVES THE COMMUNITY

Following the guidance of the early Rectors and their congregations, All Saints' has continued to be interested in the work of those organizations and societies in the community and nation which strive for better social conditions and understanding among peoples. Many services have been held for the Army and Navy Units; for Masonic, I.O.O.F., Orange, Loyal Order of Moose, and Sons of England Lodges; for Kinsmen, Rotary, South African War Veterans, Windsor Teachers' Council, and the Red Cross Corps. Each year Dieppe Memorial services and Armistic Remembrance have been observed. Co-operative services with other denominations have marked the Week of Prayer at the beginning of each year. The need for supporting Education Week, the Bible Society with its increased work and world Cross, and Victory Loan Drives have all been stressed. Class room space was provided for the Officers' Training Course of the local Women's Auxiliary Air Force in the fall of 1942. Training classes for Scout and Guide, Cub and Brownie leaders have been held in the Parish Hall. All Saints' has participated in the Windsor School of Religion for Adults and Teachers.

The organization meeting for the St. John's Ambulance Association in Windsor was held in All Saints' parish hall in 1914, shortly before the outbreak of war. All denominations were represented. Meetings of the Association were held for some months at All Saints', Miss Nellie Gerard being Nurse in Charge, and with the First Aid and Service Training courses, while Dr. H. R. Casgrain and Dr. Cruikshank lectured. Miss Gerard and Dr. Casgrain both went overseas and served there for many months.

Deanery meetings of various branches of the Women's Auxiliary and of the Laymen's Association, and rehearsals of the Men's and Women's Church Societies have been held in All Saints' parish hall. The Church, then, has proved itself a working fellowship, serving through the parish organizations and extending out into the Community, working with other branches of our own Church of England, co-operating with other Protestant Churches and with community and national groups seeking to better conditions.

SERVICES OF WITNESS

In 1932 All Saints' participated in a Service of Witness, the first use of this form of service in the Windsor District, and the third in all Canada. His Lordship the Bishop of Huron and the Clergy of the Deanery followed the collective prayers of the nine Anglican Churches of the Border Cities moving in a fully-robed processional from All Saints' Church to the Capitol Theatre. Bishop Seager, sounding a note of warning against the spirit of worldliness, addressed the congregation of over 1500. Several similar services in succeeding years have been addressed by Bishop R. J. Renison of Moosonee; Bishop Tsen of Honan; Bishop L. R. Sherman of Calgary; and Bishop A. H. Sovereign of Athabasca, who have all sounded the call to go forward in witness, and make a Christian Canada, a Christian world. This September Bishop W. L. Wright of Algoma in a stirring call for evangelization said that all the problems of society that need adjustment can be solved through divine guidance, and visioned all the world as Christian.

CAMP KINTAIL

For several years the Diocese of Huron has conducted a camp for young people at Kintail, Ontario, on the Blue Water Highway midway between Goderich and Kincardine. The first ten day period is for boys and girls 9 to 13 years of age; the second period for young people. (A.Y.P.A., Sunday School Teachers' etc.).

The camp is under the auspices of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, and provides not only recreation for the young people, but also interesting and instructive lectures and services by members of the clergy.

A number of young people from All Saints' parish have attended the camp and have returned, refreshed and inspired, to help carry on the church's work. In 1945, Jack Harding, son of our present warden, Mr. Wilfred Harding, was elected Best Camper.

THE ENDOWMENT FUND

We cannot celebrate these ninety years of service of All Saints' Church without mentioning those of our members who in the early years of the church gave of their personal services, and who at their passing were thoughtful in remembering the church in their wills, contributing through the Endowment Fund. Following is a list of such contributors:

Edward C. Walker
Ralph T. Hollis
Mary A. S. Boomier
Capel R. Emery
Ellen E. Dow
Isabelle Cole
Robert Green
Louisa B. Gow
Richard Carney

These people are responsible for our present endowment fund of $15,100.00.

It is fitting to mention especially the very magnificent bequest of the Scott family from whom our church has already benefitted to the extent of $27,000 which came to us in very difficult times. Through these funds we were able to make some very long-needed necessary repairs and assist in the retirement of the church debt.

In addition to these funds already distributed, we still hold in the estate for the church some $10,000 for future use in the work in the parish.

Recently we have received bequests from Miss Alice Johnson, who gave a lifetime of service as a member of the Chancel Guild, and from Miss Teresa H. Dow, long active in the Church Women's Aid, the Woman's Auxiliary, and the Choir, both of whom have died within the past few months.

For over a decade these funds have been administered by a committee of the Vestry, largely under the management of Mr. S. E. Riggs. This has involved arduous work and at times proved difficult; but in this, as in so many other matters, the faithful services of the men of the Vestry have greatly benefited the church.

No better way can be found to perpetuate the memory and carry on the work of those who have loved this church and have passed on, than a bequest to be invested with the Synod for the use of All Saints'.

UNDER THE CORNER STONE

The Windsor Herald of July 21, 1855, printed a copy of the Latin inscription placed under the corner stone at the time of the first ceremonies. It reads as follows:

Anno Domini MDCCCLV, Victoriae Reginae

Quo tempo Edmundus Head, vir excellens, Baronettus, publicas hujus provinciae rea praefectus, hujus parochiae rectore. Deo opt: max: soli Gloria.

Being translated it means:

In the year of Our Lord 1855, and of Queen Victoria the eighteen, the corner stone of this building, dedicated under the name All Saints' Church, to the glory of God, and, according to the rite of the Church of England, for His eternal worship, was laid with solemn ceremonies and prayers; by the Right Reverend A. S. McCoskey, S.T.D., L.L.D., Bishop of Michigan, in the presence of many priests, and a great concourse of people.

At this time Sir Edmund Head, Baronet, was governor of this province, and the Honourable and Right Reverend John Strachan, S.T.D., was Bishop of this Diocese of Toronto; so Edward Henry Dewar was rector of this parish.

To God Most High and Almighty alone be Glory.

THE LADIES' BAZAAR, 1856

The account of the Ladies' Bazaar held in aid of the Church Building Fund, as it appeared in the Windsor Herald of October 31, 1856, is interesting. In part it reads:

"The display of beautiful and tasteful articles for sale really took us by surprise, and shows that the ladies who undertook the management have devoted warm hearts as well as fair fingers to the good cause in which they are engaged. Nor is there any deficiency of bright eyes or soft voices to persuade the unwilling or to thank the generous. Not the least attractive feature is the Refreshment Table, which is furnished with an immense profusion of luxuries and where dinner or supper, oysters, jellies, cakes of every imaginable variety and every other delicacy are served up in the most delicious style and at the most moderate price."

No wonder the Bazaar met with such success!

the supreme sacrifice, Captain Walter L. Brown, Sgt. Desmond Howell, Sgt. William Darling, and LAC Ralph Petley.

Through its affiliation with Local Council, the Branch has participated in many activities, such as Drama Festivals, Carpet Bowling, Debating Contests, Baseball League, Efficiency Contests, Bible Baseball. Once a year the Branch is responsible for taking care of a Sunday morning service at the Essex County Sanatorium. In addition to the regular Wednesday evening meetings the Branch meets on the first Sunday of each month at 8 a.m. for Corporate Communion and breakfast. As its service to the Church, the A.Y.P.A. is responsible for the Nativity Pageant on White Gift Sunday and for breakfasting the newly confirmed people after their first Communion. Annual money raising affairs are a Minstrel Revue and Cabaret Night. Sunday School by Post is supported each year.

In 1942 Alex Newell, an active A.Y.P.A. member, entered Huron College to train for the ministry. In June, 1945, Pat Hooper, now an Executive member of the Dominion Board, and Gladys Wilson were privileged to attend the Dominion A.Y.P.A. Conference held at Kenora, Ontario. Realizing the importance of their leadership, the Board of Management of the Church helped finance their expenses to the Conference.

This year for the first time the Dominion A.Y.P.A. has prepared a national program with the theme "We Build With Thee." All Saints' A.Y.P.A. has adopted the National Program for the coming year, hoping truly to build through Christ and His Church a better to-morrow.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

First, there are plans to provide adequate and more suitable quarters in which to carry out the work demanded by changed conditions in the parish. A committee under the Board of Management is drawing up plans and securing estimates to either remodel or replace the present hall and rectory. This is tentatively called The Ten Year Plan. The intention is that the cost will be taken up during the next ten years, and by the hundredth anniversary will be completely paid.

But adequate buildings alone cannot meet the needs of the present or the future. EXCEPT THE LORD BUILD THE HOUSE, THEY LABOR IN VAIN THAT BUILD IT. There must be a new spirit, an earnest undertaking on the part of all who call themselves Christian to do their share towards achieving the ideals of the Kingdom of God and doing His will here on earth. Rev. F. W. Watt's message in the Bulletin of September 16, 1945, sums up our task:

"We have entered upon the post-war era with industrial unrest, and a changing world scene. The birth pains of a new world have begun. Many theories that would change the old order have been brought to our attention, but let us remember that no matter what changes may be wrought in this world, there is One that will ever remain fixed and unchangeable—God will remain the same. New conditions and orders that do not recognize the claims of God are condemned. The failures of the past are the measure of our failure to recognize the nature of God. The most perfect order for mankind will be created when men everywhere accept His Divine Plan of Righteousness, Mercy, and Truth. We need have no fear of the future if we will but en throne Him in the heart of every nation."

This, then, must be our prayer as we move on into the future, that we may go forward in the service of Jesus Christ and of our fellow men. Only as we commit ourselves to God, and plan for the continuance of the work of our beloved parish in accordance with our very best interpretation of His Will, which we must try to understand through prayer and study, can we serve either Him or our fellow men.

On our ninetieth anniversary, All Saints' Church re-dedicates itself to Him to Whom it was dedicated ninety years ago, to the Glory of God.

DEAN O'FERRALL

In this record we cannot forget our friendships with our sister churches in Detroit, and particularly the many occasions when the Very Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall, D.D., Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral in that city has assisted us in special services. For over a decade he has frequently been the special speaker at Harvest Home services or during the Week of Prayer, and has lectured for various organizations. We are especially happy to have him share with us in this anniversary and to be the special preacher at the services on All Saints' Day.

RED CROSS UNIT OF THE W. A.

On Wednesday, January 21st, 1945, the first meeting of the Red Cross Unit was held, and since that time and until May 30th, 1945, 122 meetings have been held, with 12,768 hours spent in work and an average attendance of 22 members.

742 woolen articles have been knitted.
1,367 articles of clothing were made.
128 quilts were completed.
19 backs were donated.
85 tops were donated.
2,180 lbs. of jam made.

The Officers are:

Convener Mrs. W. A. Walsh
Secretary Mrs. E. A. Morrish
Treasurer Mrs. W. J. Delfield
Time-Keeper Mrs. G. S. Gomes
Wool Convener Mrs. A. Cowley
Jam Convener Mrs. H. Lord & Mrs. P. Newell

We have two members over 80 years of age, Mrs. Lancashire and Mrs. Batchelor, whose zeal is an inspiration to all. The work continues in unabated fashion in these post-war days.

SELECT VESTRY OR BOARD OF MANAGEMENT

Outstanding in their contributions of time, energy, financial support, and devotion has been the work of the Select Vestry, which in 1939 became known as the Board of Management. Consisting of six men appointed by the Rector, and six elected by the congregation at the annual meeting, an elected Vestry Clerk, the two Wardens and the Rector, this body meets monthly carrying out its duties defined by the Canons of the Church. From time to time they attend meetings of the different organizations, making closer contacts with members of the church. They are responsible for financial arrangements, property, and extension, and support the clergy in all the work of the parish. Encouraging them is an Advisory Board, most of whom are former members of the Vestry. All the members work on the standing committees, holding frequent meetings. While it is impossible to name all who have worked through the Vestry, some who have served continuously for many years, in addition to those who are listed elsewhere with the present officers of the church, deserve mention, including Col. E. S. Wigle, chancellor of the Diocese since 1931, who in 1944 was honored at a civic reception marking his sixty years of service to his country and church; Mr. John Duck Sr. and his three sons, John M., George, and Fred; Mr. A. B. Lewis and his son, Mr. Allan Lewis; Messrs. John F. Whyte, George Courtney, Gordon Borges, Ed. T. H. Zahrah, John Gall, Percy Gunn, C. K. Carrington, and Col. F. H. Laing. The wardens, whose work cannot be measured by statistics, are listed on page 13.

Three names stand out as having given several years of service as wardens. Mr. A. G. Roberts was Rector's Warden from 1909 to 1914. Mr. John F. Whyte was People's Warden from 1911 to 1914, Rector's Warden in 1915 and 1916, and People's Warden again in 1923 to 1927. The longest record, however, is held by Mr. Allan Lewis, who was People's Warden from 1921 to 1929, and Rector's Warden from 1942 to the present time.

The auditors too have made a valuable contribution. Among those who have so served, each over a period of several years, have been Messrs. Harold Browning, Ralph Hollis, W. G. McClean, Allan Lewis, and the present auditors, W. F. Morgan-Dean and E. H. Thistlethwaite.

While it is true that Clergy, Wardens, Delegates to Synod, Board of Management, and Advisory Board Members do conduct the affairs of the Church in the main, these officers act as the appointed or elected representatives of the congregation as a whole, and are responsible to the congregation for a yearly accounting of their stewardship, at the annual meeting held each January. It is the privilege and obligation of every member of eighteen years or over to attend, discuss past and future, and elect officers for the ensuing year.
