George Joly Dies In Detroit

Mr. George Joly, resident of Grosse Isle, Mich., died Monday, December 8th, at Delray Hospital in Detroit. He was the husband of the late Hortense (Gignac), father of Rev. Gerard Joly, CSSR, U.S. Air Force, Asia; Rev. George Joly, CSSR, Belem, Brazil; Sister M. Nazarita, IHM Akron, Ohio; Sister M. Matilda Berthle, IHM Jackson Mich; Mrs. Gerard Notebaert, Mrs. Dominic Gorno, Mrs. John Hancock, all of Grosse Isle, Mich. Robert, Plymouth, Mich., and the late Louis G., 16 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. The funeral was held recently from Ridge Funeral Home, Trenton, Mich., at 9:15 a.m. at Holy Redeemer Church, Detroit, Mich., and interment took place at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Both the late Mr. and Mrs. George Joly were born in this community and lived here until 65 years ago when they took up residence in Detroit, Mich. Mr. Joly had been a master plumber for more than 60 years.

4-Month-Old Infant Dies

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Currie, of the 6th Concession, Malden Township, on the death of their four-month-old son, William Galin, who died December 19 in Hotel Dieu Hospital.

Funeral services for the infant were held December 21 from the James H. Sutton funeral home in Amherstburg and burial was in Rose Hill Cemetery.

South Windsor Kiwanians Treat Youngsters

Members of the South Windsor Kiwanis Club played the spirit of Christmas to 93 youngsters on December 17 at the Dominion Golf Club, treating them to a turkey dinner and afterwards distributing gifts and candy to all.

The 93 in attendance included youngsters who spent two weeks at the Kiwanis Sunshine Camp on Lake Erie, their sisters and brothers, and 23 wards from the Amherstburg Aid Society.

Mr. J. J. Gillman was in charge of the guests, driving them to the party, looking after them, and the youngsters as a group.

So successful was the affair, that the club looked to make the party an annual event.

Mrs. Stanley Barlow Passes At 77

Following a lengthy illness, Mrs. Nino Ethel Barlow of Regatta Road, LaSalle, died in Grace Hospital on December 19 in her 77th year.

A resident of LaSalle for the past 12 years, Mrs. Barlow had resided in the Windsor district for a total of 32 years, coming to LaSalle from Essex. She was born in Windsor, Ontario.

She was a member of the Windsor District home of St. Joseph's Church, Rosedale Boulevard, Windsor. This was their regular monthly meeting and their final business session for 1952.

St. Joseph's Church Holds Bingo

The Ushers Club of St. Joseph's Church, River Canard held their annual Christmas bingo on Sunday evening, December 21, in the church hall.

St. Andrew's Sunday School Christmas Concert Success

More than 100 children and their parents turned out Friday evening, December 19, to St. Andrew's Memorial Church for the annual Sunday School Christmas Party held in the church auditorium.

A wide selection of musical numbers, including vocal, tap dance, and instrumental selections, were presented by the children in various classes with a feature of the evening being the singing of the Christmas carol, "Silent Night," by the children from two to four years of age.

The concert was a great success and the children were of Taylor, we to obtain a record of work from July 31 to December 22, and we should like to itemize each phase in the duties of a police officer.

In the five-month period, 8 auto accidents occurred in the town, but with no serious injury to anyone involved.

LaSalle police answered 219 calls, ranging all the way from field fires, domestic troubles, to bootleggers operating in town.

Doors and windows of business establishments were checked 824 time, and of this number only two doors were found unlocked in the whole five months of inspection.

Police officers were, on 11 occasions, required to appear in Court to testify in cases.

Banquet liquor permits were checked 15 times; summons were served 22 times; a warrant of commitment was issued once; and 92 investigations were carried out.

Statements from police and private citizens were taken 26 times.

All in all, it appears to have been a very successful five-month period for our local officers, Chief Taylor and Private Constable Ernest Lauzon. Constable Victor also served for three months.

Technicians watch as a two-ton lead cylinder containing ten pounds of Cobalt 60 is lowered into a 5,400-gallon tank of water at the Stanford Research Radiation Engineering Laboratory at Palo Alto, California, where it will be employed to develop industrial uses for large amounts of radiation. The radioactive cobalt is three times the amount released heretofore for experimentation. The water forms a complete shield and the cylinder will be opened later by remote control.

Guide Association Holds Annual Christmas Party

The Local Girl Guide Association for LaSalle, River Canard, Amherstburg held their annual Christmas Party for the Guides and Brownies in the Colonel Bishop School on Wednesday evening, December 10.

It was a happy, successful event. The evening began with the girls singing Christmas carols, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Walsh.

Though the service awards and proficiency badges won recently by the girls had not at that time arrived, the Brown Owl mentioned that during the year 20 Golden Bars, eight Golden Hands and 33 proficiency badges had been earned.

Judith Grondin is to receive her Golden Hand and collector's badge in the new year, at which time Laraine James, Elizabeth Veighey and Audrey Jones will receive their needlecraft badges.

Signaller's badges will be given to Laraine James, Lorraine Neumah, Alice Broughton and Elizabeth Veighey.

Diane Lenover will receive her toymaker badge.

In Girl Guide awards, the Girl Guide Service Star was given out at the recent birthday party, and to those who recently

Children's Aid Society Meets At Essex

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Children's Aid Society of Essex County and Pelee Island was held at Essex, Ontario.

Mrs. F. Armstrong, chairman of the Reception Home Committee reported that there were 14 children cared for at the reception home during the past month and 147 days of care given.

The May Court Club of Windsor had held a Christmas shower and three large cartons of toys had been given to the home. There had also been a dryer installed.

Plans for Christmas included the distribution of a gift to each child under the care of the society and where necessary, parents were assisted in providing Christmas toys for the children.

The January meeting of the Board will take place on January 15 at the reception home in Windsor.
