"Perhaps, what I shall call here the poetry of radical artifice will just disappear.
Perhaps, but in the meantime, it keeps turning up like a virus: in Canada, where the Concrete poetry movement of the fifties and sixties and the emergence of sound-text poetry and performance work have generated, often without direct connection to its U.S. counterparts, the very rich and vital experimentalism in evidence in such journals as - Rampike- " -- Marjorie Perloff (Stanford University) --

"This is a vital and important journal!" -- Judith Hoffberg/Ombrella --

"Rampike -- is one of the most elegant and lively "zeens" in Canada"
-- Phil Hall/Books in Canada --

"This is one hell of an impressive product. I've never seen any other magazine that so successfully moves back and forth from academic analysis to the frontiers of experimental art." -- Mike Gunderloy/Fact Sheet Five
