The cover features three embossed leaf designs. The top one is a large, detailed leaf with prominent veins and serrated edges. The middle one is a smaller, more stylized leaf with a wavy, scalloped edge. The bottom one is another leaf with a long stem and serrated edges, similar in style to the top one.

TO THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NAMES OF JESUS AND MARY

who during the past one hundred years have zealously laboured in the vineyard of our town to plant Christian ideals in the hearts of their students,

WE, THE STUDENTS OF ST. ROSE,
GRATEFULLY DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK.

May the seeds of virtue that they have sown
in the hearts of young people over the past century appear at harvest time in their crowns of glory

THANKS TO OUR PATRONS — THANKS TO OUR ADVERTISERS —

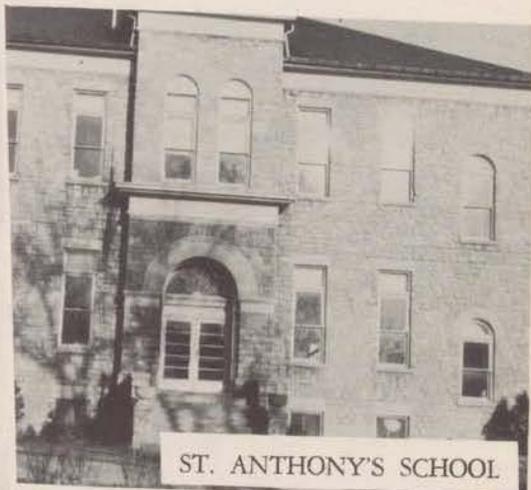

Producing a yearbook is a gigantic undertaking. Even with an enthusiastic yearbook staff the project could not have succeeded without financial backing, for subscriptions cover only a fraction of the cost. We are indebted then to you, our patrons and advertisers, for your genuine and generous support. Pictured here, drawn from the different classes, are the top solicitors in the yearbook drive.

HIS EXCELLENCY
Most Reverend G. Emmett Carter, D.D., Ph.D.
Bishop of London

My Dear Students of St. Rose High School:

It was with great pleasure that I learned that you were dedicating your Yearbook to the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, who mark this year the hundredth anniversary of their devoted work for the Church.

Much has been given you and much will be expected of you. It is not too extraordinary these days for young men and women to receive a high school education, but the type of dedication and self-sacrifice which you have come to know in your teachers remains rare in a self-seeking world.

Perhaps you do not realize it, but virtue — like many other things— cannot be reproduced without imitation. The only way we can be brave is to have seen brave people and to have known of brave deeds. The only way we can be honest is to meet people for whom honesty is a way of living. The only way we can really love God and our neighbor is to meet with people who simply breathe that spirit of love in everything they do. This has been the greatest boon of your education, namely through your parents and your teachers to have seen the patterns of this type of life and to be able to reproduce it in your own.

Always be grateful for your education and always be grateful to those who have done so much that you in turn might be able to give to others.

Devotedly in Our Lord,

G. Emmett Carter, Bishop of London

Reverend J. E. Martin, C.S.B.

OUR PASTOR'S MESSAGE

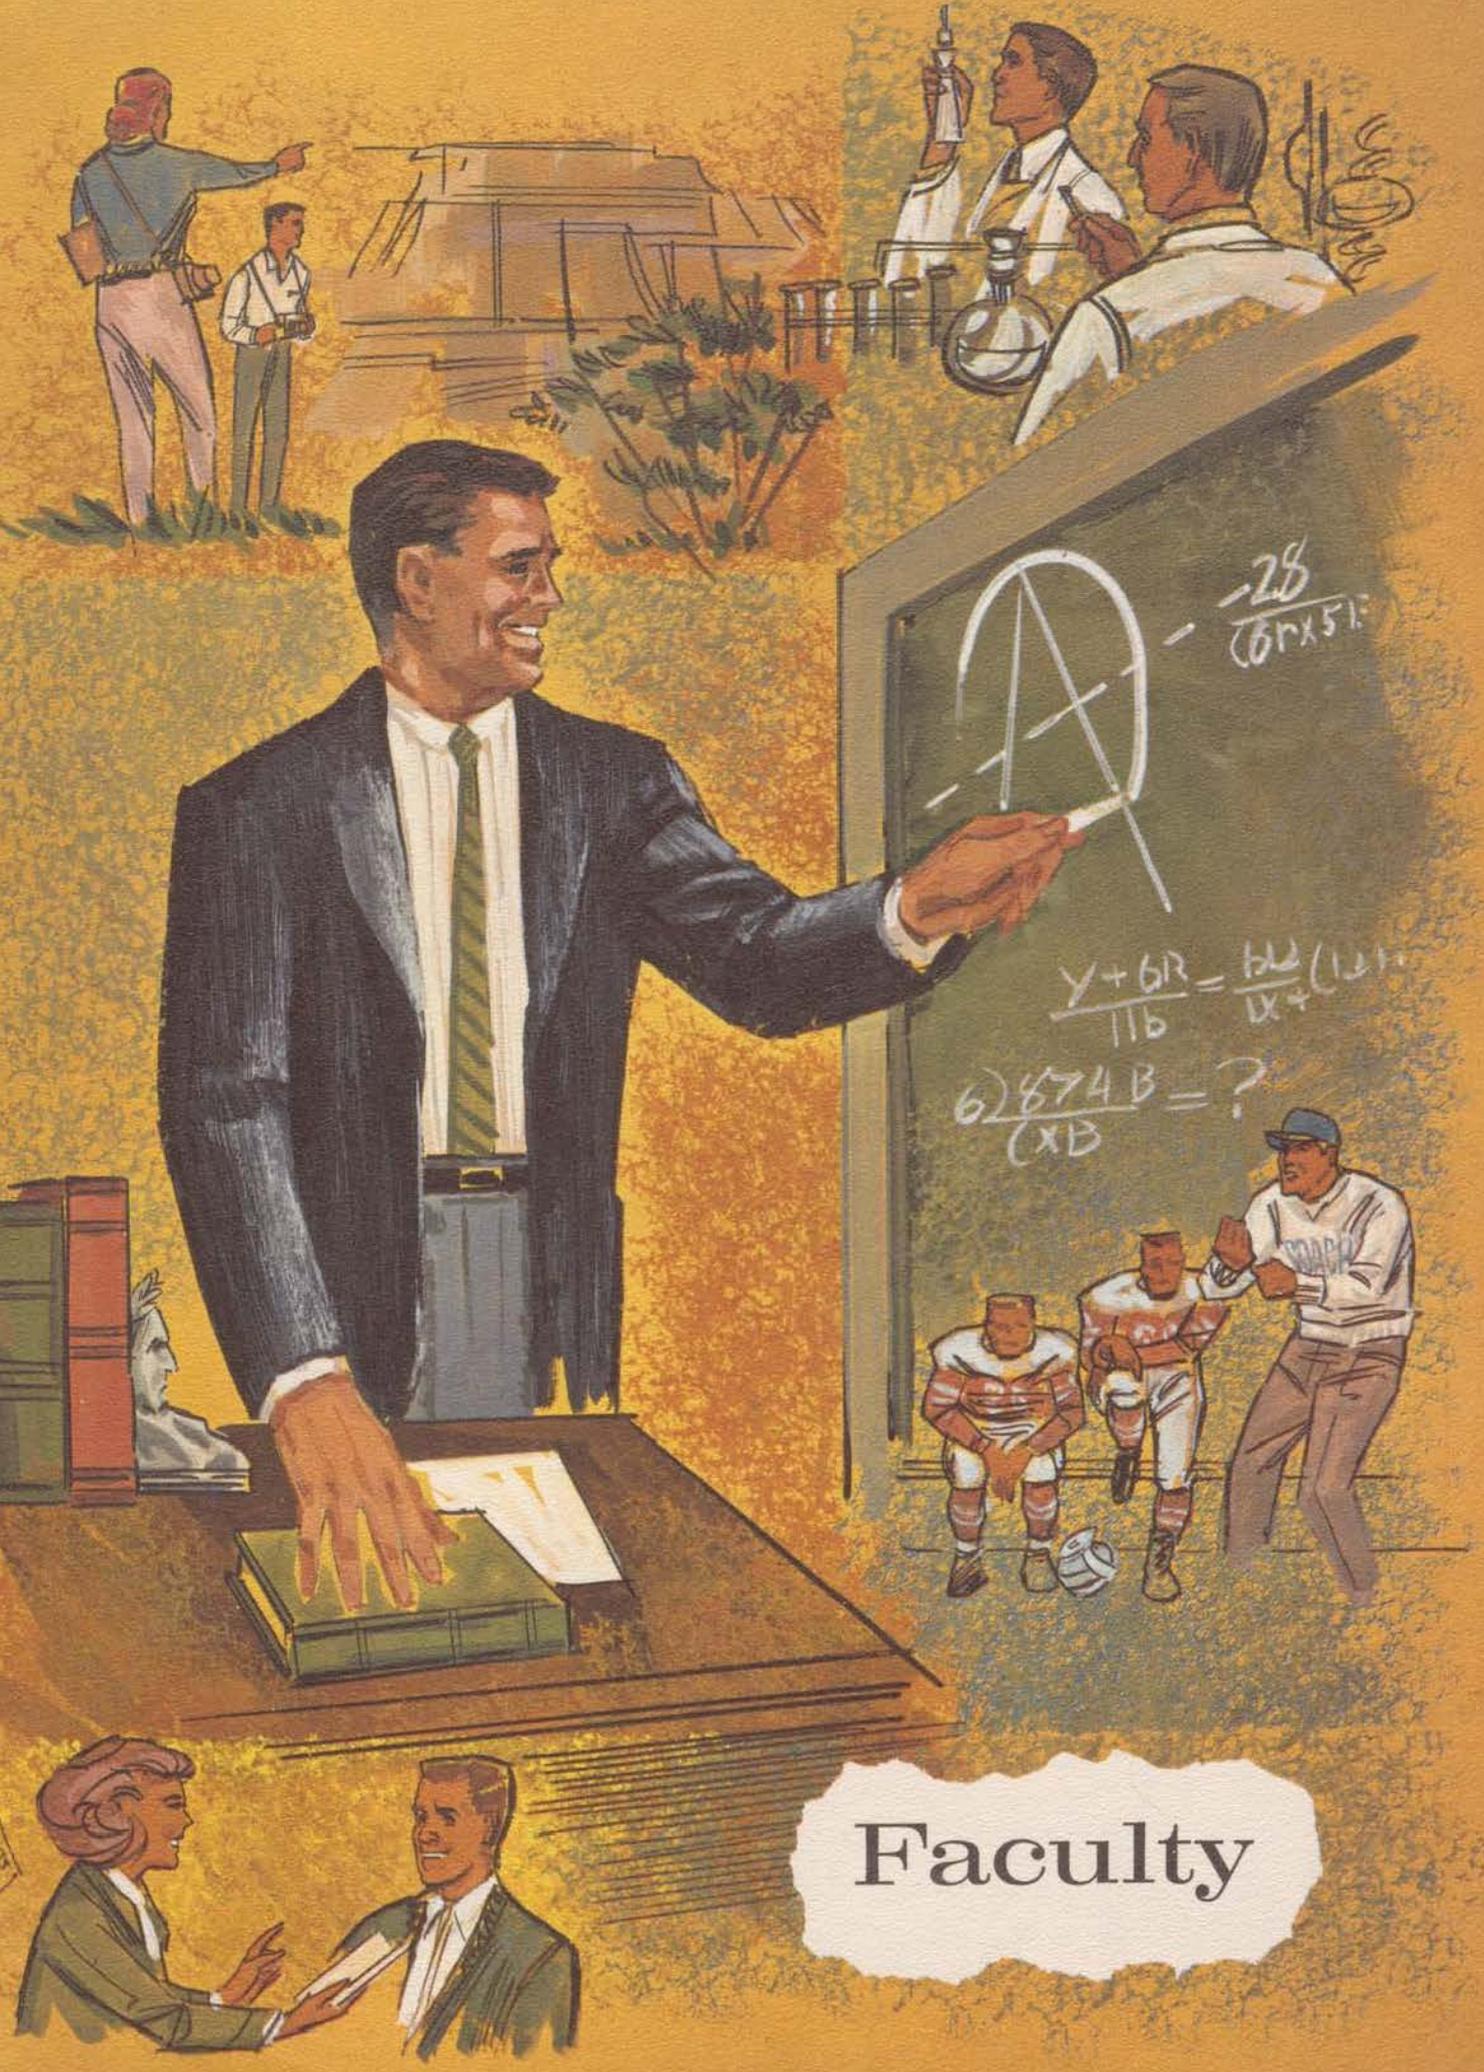

Your teachers, the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, have witnessed the closing exercises of Catholic students here in Amherstburg for one hundred successive years. During those years many Sisters have contributed much to the spiritual, intellectual and cultural life of the people of the community.

They have taught you to see life as it is, to see the Church as it is and to realize that you have a part to play in its life and worship. You were among the first to initiate active participation in the liturgy in your parish church, and now your prayer life is not the individualistic piety which finds expression in purely personal, often sentimental and theologically off-centre devotions. You understand the meaning of the Mass and the Sacraments and know their full familial and social nature. You see faith as a full commitment of your entire person to God, as something to be lived and not merely accepted by the intellect or professed by the tongue. You see Christian morality as love of God and of neighbour expressed in living.

But even all this, important as it is, is not enough. If you are to be a mature Catholic, you must see the Church as Christ. You must understand that the work of the Church is not only to save souls, but also to help bring men and the world in which men live to full perfection. Only if you have this understanding and this knowledge will you be able to take part in the work of the Church, the work of Christ, as a mature Catholic.

You have the foundation for this kind of maturity but a more complete formation will come only from your own individual reading and study, and the spiritual results from the Holy Spirit acting on you.

This formation is a lifelong work — day by day, as you encounter Christ in the Mass and the Sacraments, commune with God in prayer, worship with your fellow members of Christ and live and work with them in daily life. May the Holy Spirit lead you in the days and years ahead to greater and greater resemblance to Christ and to your full development as a Christian man and Christian woman.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST SCHOOL

Mother Marie-Rose
Foundress

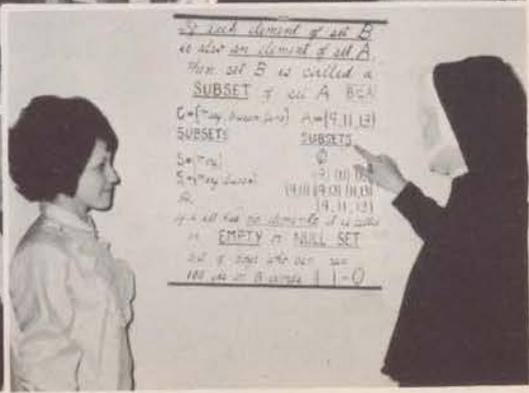

Our Amherstburg mission was the first offshoot of the Provincial House of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary located at St. Mary's Academy in Windsor.

In the face of dire poverty the foundresses served the cause of Christ in the little ones confided to their care. While teaching has been their principal work, the daughters of Mother Marie-Rose have refused no task no matter how hard the work involved might be.

When the need arose the Sisters took in as many as forty boarders aged three to eighteen and made the best of the cramped quarters in what is the present convent. St. Joseph's Academy also housed a thriving commercial school. The actual music department serves students from our own schools as well as from the surrounding areas.

We rejoice with our teachers, the Sisters of the Holy Names, as they see the completion of one hundred years 1865-1965, in our community, exerting upon young and old alike, an everlasting influence.

The accompanying pictures will relate more accurately than words some of the activities of the thirteen sisters presently located at the Convent.

Class of 1965

*Ad Astra
Per Ardua*

CONNIE LYNN ANNE ALLEN

Imbued with missionary zeal,
Connie responds to every appeal,

JUDITH ANN AMLIN

Now you will see,
A nurse she'll be,
As sweet and kind
As e'er you'll find.

RONALD BARRON

Ask of Ron whatever we would,
He would do whatever he could.

EDMOND CHARLES
BISSONNETTE

In school activities he did his part,
Acting in a way that won our heart.

PAULINE MARGARET BONDY

For the green and gold
With all her might,
You may be sure,
She'd fight, fight, fight.

SUZANNE ELIZABETH BONDY

Suzanne is a clever lass,
Who works well in every class.

PETER MICHAEL BREAUULT

A professor of Latin surely he'll be,
In some famous university.

FREDRICK HUNT

Rick in mechanics does excel,
For us he invented the St. Rose bell.

DENISE JEAN KNAPP

Fair Denise, with eyes of blue,
Has wisdom, wit, and knowledge too.

DANIEL ROY LAING

He's thoughtful, dependable, ready for fun,
That's why he's liked by everyone.

STANLEY LANGLOIS

Tall, dark and handsome,
Winning in his ways,
He'll be a cherished memory
Of our school days.

DAVID THOMAS MAILLOUX

Never a boy more loyal and true,
What he can he'll surely do.

MICHAEL JOSEPH McBRIDE

With Mike around 'twas never dull,
A word or smile would break the lull.

SHARON ANN MELOCHE

Our Sharon sings with voice so sweet,
In art too, she's hard to beat.

JOYCE ELAINE PILLON

Cheerful, friendly, clever and kind,
A sweeter girl you cannot find.

LINDA CECILIA POUGET

Though in height she's not very tall,
For her heart of gold she beats us all.

GLORIA JEANNE RENAUD

Though gay and full of fun,
She never plays till her work's done.

JAMES ARTHUR BURNS

In the gym he's very fast,
Yet often late for history class.

STANLEY BERNARD BURNS

With responsible Stan in Y.C.S.
Who would ever doubt success?

PATRICIA MARY COURNOYEA

Poised, pert, pretty and polite,
Four points for Pat that are seen on sight.

VINCENZO DEL DUCA

An Italian, loyal and true,
He spoke with animation.
In most everything he'd do
He'd win our admiration.

DOUGLAS WILLIAM
DROUILLARD

He's known for his famous luck,
In meeting with a transport truck.

PEGGY SUSAN DUFOUR

In school work she's very fast,
In most subjects unsurpassed.

SHARON ANNE FELLS

Her manners mild,
Her ready smile,
Endeared her to us
All the while.

PATRICIA ANN GIRARD

In manner she's witty,
In French she's supreme,
A great little forward
On the basketball team.

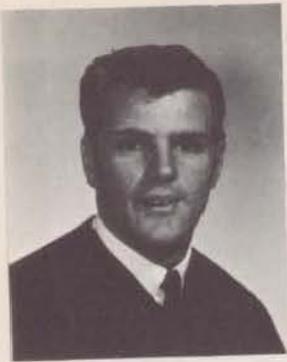

SANDRA PAULETTE GRAVEL

In our hearts we'll long remember
Our treasurer and Council member.

BRENDA LEE HERCEG

On water skis, so we've been told,
She oft risked her life
In effort bold.

DONALD JOSEPH SHAW

In class he's fair,
In sports supreme,
Don's always there to help his team.

DOUGLAS BERNARD
SUNDERLAND

Doug, the President of our school,
Leads us in following the Golden Rule.

BARBARA LOUISE TAYLOR

She's a girl who's really sweet,
With a personality that can't be beat.

DENNIS MICHAEL THRASHER

With friendly manner and joking way,
He did shorten our every day.

"SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOT" rings in our ears as we stand as a group, hands clasped in an unbroken chain. We have come to the parting of the ways, but we separate with a prayer on our lips that the chain which binds in heart and mind to the principles we have learned at St. Rose will never be broken.

1. Hand-me-downs is all I've got.

2. My first "Consul"

3. I throw a big shadow.

4. "I've got a doggie named Leroy."

5. Where are my presents?

6. I want a "Mama Berger".

7. "Come home Tom"

11. Get in, honey.

8. Want to race?

9. Get out, and stay out!

10. Want to see my dollies?

13. Made in Italy.

12. But officer . . . I was only going twenty.

14. Where did everybody go?

15. Here come the forwards!

16. Chicken! All I get is chicken!

MOTHERS' MEMOIRS

For name of THE BABIES see page 48

17. He hasn't got fleas, Ma!

18. Where's the drag strip?

19. But who is going to pull me?

20. What time's the Prom?

21. I think I'm being followed.

21. Hi ya, Big Boy!

22. Is it really my birthday?

25. Now let me see.

26. I think I missed the bus.

27. Our little life guard.

28. Don't fence me in.

29. Looks like I've done it again.

29. Hurrah for St. Rose!

30. This beats spinach any day.

31. I think I'd rather do it myself, Mother.

Although the Seniors were less successful point-wise than the Juniors, handicapped principally by numbers, being able to obtain only a single substitute from the students eligible to play, nevertheless they made a fine showing and gave their opponents some stiff opposition.

ATHLETICS

For our success in extracurricular competition and for the enjoyment our physical education classes afforded us we are deeply grateful to our teachers and coaches for their zeal, encouragement and untiring efforts in our behalf. Thank you, Messrs. Gullivan and Chevalier, Mrs. Fee and the Misses Harris, McBride, and Kelly.

JUNIOR GIRLS BASKETBALL

The 1965 season has been a banner year for the Junior Basketball players. Defeated only once in the inter-school league, they emerged in first place. In the semi-finals they were again victorious, defeating Harrow by six points in a two-game total point session, thus winning the Essex County "B" championship and making them eligible for another two-game play-off against Merlin, the winners of Kent County.

The teamwork that the forwards displayed always kept the opposing team on the alert, while the tactful guarding made it difficult for the opponents to maintain possession of the ball.

BOYS ATHLETICS

In 1964-65 we had an interesting and varied calendar of events. Full-hearted cooperation, outstanding enthusiasm and fine sportsmanship were displayed by the students. We wish to express our sincere gratitude to Mr. John Gallivan and Mr. Allen Chevalier for their wise instructions and careful guidance throughout the year.

CROSS COUNTRY RACE

Fifteen boys coached by Mr. Gallivan represented our school in the annual cross country race held in Point Pelee National Park. The junior team placed third in the mile and a half run; the intermediate placed fourth in the two and a half mile run in which Dale Jubenville brought in a first with nearly record time in his fifteen minute forty second struggle. The senior team placed fourth in the three mile run.

The intermediate team also competed in the S W O S S A cross country race held at Blenheim where they met stiffer competition.

VOLLEYBALL

The boys' volleyball team coached by Mr. Chevalier fought their way to the "runner-up" championship in the E S S C A tournament held in Leamington. The team placed fourth in the S W O S S A championship tournament held in Blenheim.

TRACK MEET

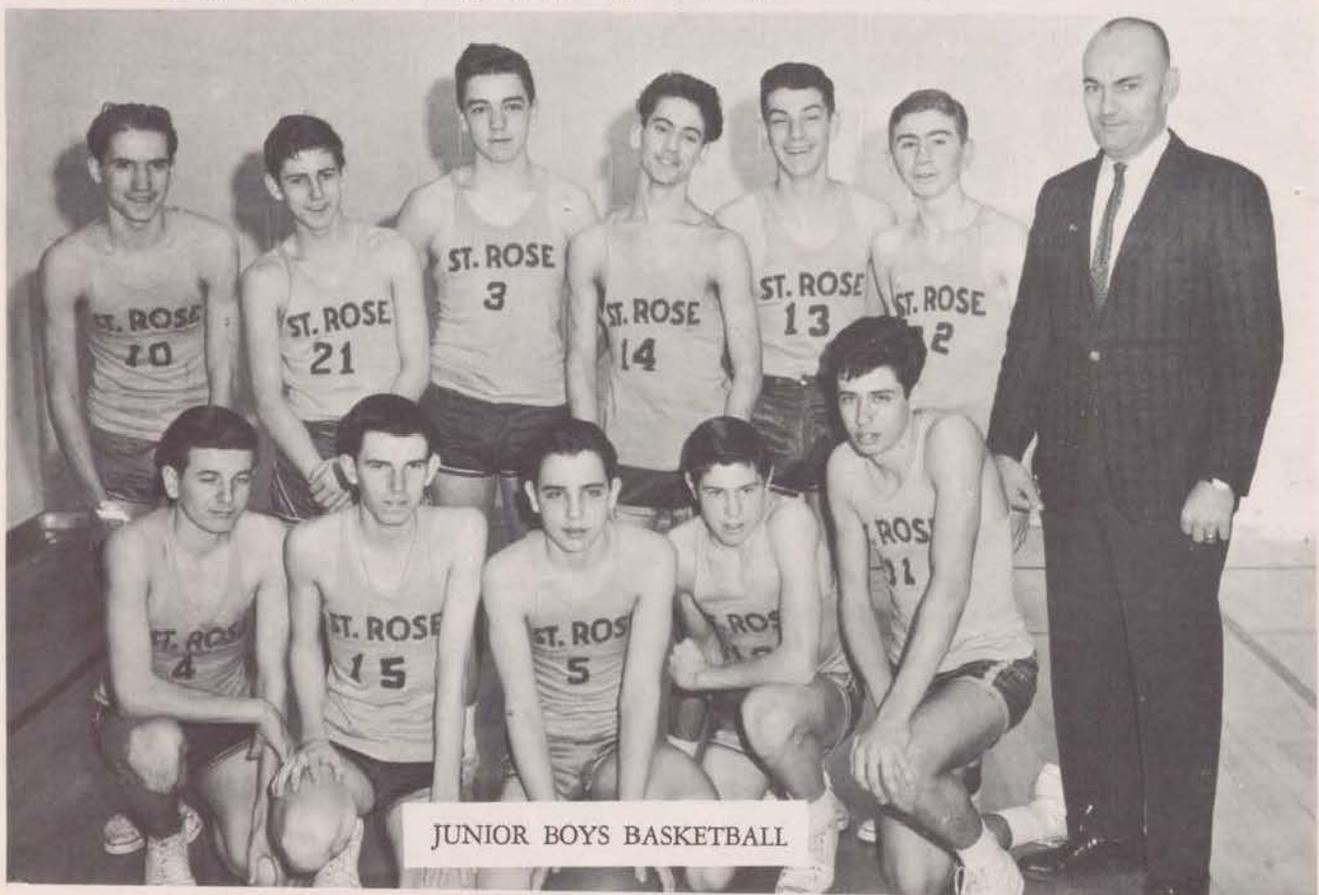

This year our field day was held in the early fall. The local winners then competed with other high schools of the county at a meet held in Windsor. Despite the stiff competition several of the boys brought honours to our school. We are proud of them and wish to congratulate them on their success.

"S-U-C-C-E-S-S-" that's the way we spell success" was one of the many yells shouted by this active group of cheerleaders as they incited their teams on to victory. SEATED: Thérèse Tourangeau, CENTRE ROW: Coral Mailloux, Lyn Stanley, Nancy Deneau, Diane Sprague. BACK: Patricia Vermette.

BASKETBALL

At the annual Basketball Tournament held in Essex St. Rose Senior Boys won the S W O S S A "B" championship and were consolation winners in the S W O S S A "A" League.

Our junior boys placed fourth in the league standing with a 5 and 5 record. Throughout the season Mike Higgins and Richard Pouget led the team in rebounds, while Keith Bondy led in scoring with an average of 10.7. Following Keith were Marvin Shaw with 8.5 and Jack Kost with 7.9 points per game.

Our senior boys placed third in the regular season with a four and four record. John Shaw led the team in scoring with a 17.0 average. Following John was his brother Don with 10.2 and Dale Jubenville with 9.1 points per game. Danny Gibb and Stan Langlois also contributed greatly to the team. Peter Breault and Doug Sunderland, our defensive guards, co-operated with our backboard players to form a strong defense. The team averaged 48.3 points per game this year.

Both teams, coached by Mr. Chevalier, are to be complimented on their fine display of rebound skills, spectacular shots, outstanding passes and terrific sportsmanship.

This year there were six intramural teams. The first and second place teams played off in a best of three series in which Don Shaw's team defeated Stan Langlois' team two straight games with scores 45 to 40 and 36 to 35. All the participants seemed to enjoy the series and showed great enthusiasm in their games.

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball is the chief competitive sport of the fall season. The girls presented both a junior and a senior team for the tournament held at Essex. While the juniors were successful in defeating both Kingsville and Harrow, the seniors won only one game against St. Anne's.

TRACK MEET

The local track meet held in the fall was a day of good, wholesome competition in which most of the students of St. Rose and St. John's participated. The winners went to Windsor for the county meet. There they met stiff opposition and apart from Sharon Pillon and Bernadette Drouillard who won prizes in shot put and discus, the girls did not emerge with any great honours. All who participated, however, felt that the day was well spent.

June 21, 1964, will linger long in the minds of the boys and girls of the Senior Class of St. Rose deemed worthy of the honours of graduation.

The day began at eight o'clock for the twenty-nine Seniors who in cap and gown, accompanied by the eleventh grade classes, offered the Sacrifice of the Mass together as a group for the last time, with Reverend J. E. Martin, Pastor, as celebrant.

The graduates breakfast followed, this year held in the gymnasium, beautifully decorated for the gala occasion. The afternoon activities commenced with the academic procession when self-sacrificing parents thrilled with pride when they saw their sons and daughters, accompanied by their little pages and flower girls, proceed to the front of the Church to the traditional strains of Pomp and Circumstance. Today these boys and girls received the tangible reward of twelve years of study in the form of a Secondary School Graduation Diploma. Several students also were the recipients of scholarships or awards for achievement. Reverend J. V. Thompson read the Proclamation of Honours as the diplomas were conferred by the Pastor. Reverend H. N. Clemens of Catholic Central High School in Detroit addressed the graduates and their parents.

With the Act of Consecration to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, the concluding lines were written to an important chapter in the lives of these young graduates.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Student Council

As the year draws to a close I think back to that November day when my classmates nominated me for the coveted office of President. That was a momentous day for me. When the results of the elections were made known I felt truly honoured and joyful, though I knew with the honours there were responsibilities I must shoulder. What I did not fully realize was what this office would mean to me in the way of acquiring lasting friends. You will never know how much those daily smiles and "hellos" from students in all grades have meant to me. I would like to express my gratitude to you, all of you, for your fine display of kindness and cooperation; it warmed up many a chilly day for me.

As President of the Student Council it is my duty and privilege to speak for my classmates. We would like to thank the Sisters of the Holy Names for their many years of devotion and sacrifice on our behalf, the Basilian Fathers for their guiding hand, all the secular teachers whom we have met throughout our years of school, and, finally, our parents who have had to make so many sacrifices to see us equipped with a Catholic education.

As we prepare to step into the future, leaving behind the most wonderful years of our lives, we will always remember the years spent here and will always be proud of having been students at S.R.H. To the undergraduates I say, continue to carry on the traditions and to show the tremendous school spirit that we have had in the past. It is up to us to prove that our school is the best.

Yearbook Staff

EDITORS' MESSAGE

The publication of a yearbook requires many hours of work. Besides the painstaking task of planning and layout, there are advertisements to be solicited, copy assignments to be written and pictures to be taken. Despite the inevitable work involved, everyone of us has enjoyed putting out this sixteenth edition of the St. Rose Yearbook. Its success is the result of the unired effort of all the students. We thank you most sincerely for that cooperation and hope that our annual will afford you many hours of pleasure in the years to come.

Sister Mary Ludmille
Died November 20, 1964

Gaiety, kindness, devotedness — Sister Mary Ludmille was the embodiment of them all. For most of us she was our teacher for only one year, but we will live that year over and over again, for the impression she made upon us will never fade.

We knew Sister loved each one of us with almost a mother's love, while we, for our part, vied with each other in our eagerness to please her. We worked, we played, we prayed, we did everything just as we thought Sister would want us to do it.

Sorrow filled our hearts when the Angel of Death drew her from our midst, yet we smiled through our tears when we thought of the joys now hers at the end of a life of devoted service as a Religious in God's vineyard.

May her soul rest in peace.

"Singing is twice praying." Sister Marie Adeline reminded the St. Rose choir as they rehearsed for the first High Mass to be sung in English in our Parish.

THE ST. ROSE GLEE CLUB requires much rehearsing for three-part singing, but the enjoyment they get themselves and the pleasure they give their parents and friends at the annual concert amply repay them for the work involved.

June 1, 1975

Dear Doug:

News of your recent accident brings back memories of that other accident you suffered when in our Senior year at St. Rose. It seems so long ago. I remember you were out of school six weeks then. I do hope this present accident is less serious and that you will soon be out of the hospital and able to resume your teaching activities.

What a disappointment you were not able to be present yesterday for the ordination of our former classmate, Stan. It's hard to think of him being Father Burns, C.S.B. It was all so wonderful and most of our classmates were there. You can imagine what reminiscing there was at the afternoon reception. Besides we had to be brought up to date on the more recent activities of friends we hadn't seen in such a long time.

At the risk of repetition, for I know mine won't be the only letter you'll receive, I'm going to give you all the news I can recall. The majority of our fellow students as you know, are married, have families and are holding promising positions in the business world.

In the same profession as yourself are Patricia Girard, head of the French department at beautiful new St. Rose, Dan Laing and Denise Knapp, both at the University of Windsor, the former a history professor and the latter, their most talented physicist.

Do you remember what a wonderful basketball player Stan Langlois was? Well, he's now playing for the Detroit Pistons. And will you ever forget Eddy, the big hockey player? Just imagine, he's now playing with the Montreal Canadiens.

Among the graduates of '65, well settled in the married state are Pat Cournoyea, who married a Chief Petty Officer of the Royal Canadian Navy and Judy Amlin, who married into the Sinasac Dairy family. Barbara Taylor, also happily married, was showing everyone the picture of her six wonderful sons. We missed Jim Burns, but I suppose he couldn't tear himself away from his wife and brand new twin girls.

A few old friends in the medical profession could not attend. You probably see them yourself around the hospital. Peggy is a laboratory technician, Gloria a registered nurse and Brenda, whom you probably don't see too often, is a pediatrician.

Pauline and Connie are secretaries at General Motors in Windsor and are doing very well in their careers. Sue Langlois (nee Bondy) is a receptionist at the Bell Telephone Company in Windsor.

Operating their own businesses are our former class president, Doug, who is living in the States and selling life insurance, Sharon Fells, who just opened a new Beauty Salon in Amherstburg, and Peter, whom we all though would be a Latin teacher, recently opened a huge Department Store in La Salle. Don Shaw, a cowboy? No — he's a business man too, but in Virginia.

Remember Dennis who collected yearbook ads as if they were going out of style? They went to his head, for he is now the chief advertising salesman for the New York Times.

Sharon Meloche couldn't see her way clear to be present today either, for she had an art display at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

We even have an honorable member of Parliament among our fellow graduates, Vince. He was always a good speaker in class, wasn't he?

I'm sure you already guessed what line of work Rick is engaged in. Yes, he's a superb electrician. David Mailloux became an Ontario Provincial Policeman and is stationed in Montreal, so I didn't get a chance to see him either. Nor did I see Joyce Pillion. She's in Paris featuring her new collection of Fall Designs. So is Linda Pouget in Europe, honeymooning I'm told.

I'm not giving you any news about Stan's ordination and reception, for I know it will be well covered by the Windsor Star, whose editor-in-chief, Mike McBride, and social editor, Ron Barron, were present at the ceremonies. Let me just say, that the joy we shared with Stan was intensified by this unplanned class reunion. I think that we graduates of '65 have been a credit to our Alma Mater, don't you?

My husband joins me in wishing you a speedy recovery and I have had my little ones praying for you.

Goodbye for now,

Your classmate,
Sandy

UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

On December 10, 1964, the high school students of St. John's and St. Rose gathered in the redecorated hall of the Knights of Columbus. The occasion was to celebrate the sixteenth anniversary of the Declaration of Human Rights.

Students from grades XI and XII gave inspiring and helpful talks on this subject of Human Rights. Jim Burns, chairman, began and led the discussions. The panelists were Gloria Renaud, Vincenzo Del Duca, Teresa Mead, and James White. With the aid of Reverend J. V. Thompson, C.S.B. questions asked from the floor were handled with comparative ease and thoroughness.

We came to the conclusion that the best way we, as students, could help the segregated groups in our district, would be to cooperate fully with these people in times of necessity, for they too are people of God.

PRESENTATION OF LETTERS OF STANDING

In a short but impressive ceremony which took place at the K. of C. Hall in December, Reverend J. V. Thompson, C.S.B., presented Letters of Standing to the students of Grade XI who successfully completed the course of study prescribed by the Department of Education for Grade X. The highlight of the ceremony was the presentation of a $50 Scholarship, donated by the C.W.L., to Miss Angela Drouillard who attained the highest standing in Grade X. Mrs. Gerald Coyle, President of the C.W.L., made the presentation.

JOEY-ANNE GIBB AND CHRISTINA WIGLE

Joey-Anne Gibb and Christina Wigle, Grade 8-A pupils of St. John the Baptist School, were the school representatives in both the "Royal Canadian Legion" and in the "Inspectors and Ratepayers" Public Speaking Contests, held last February. We were happy to congratulate our vivacious Joey-Anne as the winner in both contests. She chose as her topic "Great Books For Juniors." Tina captivated the attention of her audience by giving a vivid mental picture of "The Hawaiian Islands, the Mid-Pacific Tourist Attraction."

THE EUCHARISTIC CRUSADE

Left to right are Rose Marie Pouget, Patricia Sprague, Vincent Scipione, Stephen Caron, and Tommy Pietrangela, Grade 8A Senior Eucharistic Crusader Captains, busily preparing their next weekly group meeting, usually held in the gymnasium.

The Eucharistic Crusade is a special section of the Apostleship of Prayer. The purpose of the Crusade is to help students live a life of union with Christ — to know, love and serve Him better. It has for its watchwords: Pray, Receive Communion, Make Sacrifices, and Save Souls. The Crusaders are encouraged to say their Morning Offering, to attend the Sacrifice of the Mass oftener and to have a special devotion to our Blessed Mother. When they are received as Crusaders they are presented with a badge which they wear as a reminder of the promises they made.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Rick bequeaths his tools to next year's electricians.

Judy grants her secretarial position to next year's pencil pusher.

Dennis leaves behind his chickenpox, sniffles and orange peels.

Brenda leaves her place in front of the mirror to anyone quick enough to get there.

Connie hopes to get rid of her daily hiccups.

Pat G. gives her best wishes to all St. Rose graduates.

Peggy leaves her basketball score book in the gymnasium.

Jim leaves the clock set at the right time.

Eddy dispenses with his practical jokes.

Doug S. — renders his spot on top of the pyramid to any future courageous mountain climbers.

Danny leaves no history notes at all.

Joyce hands over her stop clock to next year's horn blower.

Peter bequeaths his beetle hair cut to David Coyle.

Pat C. leaves her slip wherever she lost it.

Linda donates her good will to everyone.

Sharon F. imparts her quiet disposition to next year's noise makers.

Stan L. vacates his parking space in front of St. Rose.

Stan B. concedes his unmemorized Latin vocabulary to next year's crammers.

Sue confers her intelligence on next year's bird brains.

David leaves Sister Patrick with ??? memories.

Doug D. leaves everything everywhere.

Denise offers her crying towel to next year's Senior Girls' Basketball captain.

Sandy sacrifices the treasury to next year's economisers.

Pauline awards her typewriter to any other speed demon.

Gloria contributes her cheerful smile to all those with long faces.

Mike passes on his argumentative nature to anyone who wants to make the teacher waste time in class.

Ron gladly leaves with no complaints.

Don wills his cowboy boots to any future Stoney Burkes.

Vince leaves his Latin undone.

Barb donates her exuberant personality to anyone without friends.

Sharon M. leaves her vocal chords to next year's alto chanters.

CAN YOU IMAGINE . . .

Peter with a brush cut?

Brenda without her "Blue Grass" cologne?

Pauline in a bad mood?

Ronnie a "duck plucker"?

Sharon F. noisy?

Become a Beautiful Beautician with that exclusive

LINDA BROOKS LOOK

No other field offers you so much. A high income right from the start. Your choice of wonderful positions as a respected, well-rewarded beautician. And an exciting new social life as well.

But you need the training that no ordinary beauty culture school can offer you. You need the vital "extra" of Linda Brooks Charm and Beauty Training as well as the standard beautician's training.

Ours is the only school in this area selected to offer the famous Linda Brooks Charm Training in conjunction with our complete beauty culture course.

For social success as well as business security,—call, write or visit
