MR. BENSON TO BE ORDAINED.

It is with sincerest feelings of the deepest joy and grateful appreciation of its high privilege that the Collegian announces the call to Ordination of Mr. Robert Benson. The bearer of that longed-for message was Father Command, Chaplain of the Sacred Heart Convent of Detroit, who made a special trip to the college last Friday morning to inform Mr. Benson that before the next Easter Morning dawns, he would be offering the Divine Sacrifice of Calvary to Almighty God and his long hoped-for dream will be realized. For in the background is the thought of our own loss when we think of the great joy it brings to one who has hoped and waited long for that call to the highest rank on earth. Mr. Benson returned to the college in September of 1909, after 18 years of business life, during which time he never lost that desire to go on for the church. After making his High School course with the Jesuits of Detroit he came to Assumption College for his Philosophy and graduated in 1900. Then, through sickness he was obliged to leave school and later entered business life. Finally in 1919, when he had risen to be superintendent of the Sinclair Oil Company in Detroit he decided to return and study Theology, and now his reward is almost at hand. On Sunday March 26th he will be ordained Sub-deacon; on April 1st he will be raised to the Deaconship, and then on Sunday morning, April 2nd, he will be elevated to that great state of the Priesthood by Bishop Gallagher in the Sacred Heart Convent, Detroit. Father Benson will say his first Mass on the following Monday morning in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and then, please God, we will have the privilege of attending his second Mass on Tuesday morning April 4th in the college Chapel. On Easter Sunday Morning in St. Vincent’s Church, Detroit, where he was baptised and where he received the other sacraments, Father Benson will sing his first Solemn Mass. When Mr. Benson leaves the college as Father Benson to take up his duties in Detroit, he goes with the best wishes and prayers of everyone in the college. Everyone - Priest, Master, and Student, will miss their sincere and jolly friend. We will miss his stories in the yard, we will miss his solemn voice that led the choir in the Chapel. But what is our recompense shall we not hear him when he shall "enter unto the Alter of God?"

ARTS II WINS HEATED DEBATE.

Tuesday evening was held one of the most interesting debates of the whole school year, in which Arts I defended the question: Resolved, That the sciences should supplant the classics in our present system of education. Second Arts opposed the question, and the discussion was a lively one, and close enough to be interesting. Opinion as to the outcome was rather evenly divided, but was set at rest when the Judges’ decision was announced yesterday morning, assigning victory to the Sophs, who scored a total of 64 points to their opponents 28. Messrs Benson, Carey and Perrin acted as judges, and at the conclusion of the debate Mr. Benson was called upon to address the students, which he did, expressing in a very feeling manner the regret with which he would leave his many friends in Assumption after his approach to Ordination. The members of the teams were: Arts II, Wm. Nachasz, James O’Morro, and James Fallon, Arts I: Al Smith, Emmet Redmond, and John McMillan. Before adjourned, the Rev. President Father Rogers announce the speakers for the next regular meeting of the society.
Although the Assumption High quintet found themselves decidedly out-weighed Monday night when they met the strong Eastern High team of Detroit, yet the Detroiters, who were confident of an overwhelming victory, were obliged to exert themselves to the utmost in order to emerg at the larger end of the score. At the end of the first half the score stood 8 all, and Assumption was working desperately to gain the upper hand. In the third period Manager Jacobs shifted the Purple and White line-up to gain better results, but the change proved disastrous, and Eastern made away nicely with ten points before the period ended. The light Assumption forwards were being gradually worn down, and the line-up was again shifted in the last period. Both teams cut added zip and pep into this final round, and each scored eight more points, making the final count 26-16. The Detroiters were experts in passing, and their defense was nearly perfect. The Assumption defense was somewhat weaker, and their shooting was less accurate than usual. This was the greatest factor in losing them the game, but every Assumption man worked hard from whistle to whistle, and they deserve more than an ordinary amount of praise for the highly creditable showing which they made against their heavier opponents. Assumption's line-up included Delu, Grimaldi, Kline, O'Leary, Kenny, Marceray, and Domen. It would be extremely difficult to pick any one star, as every man was in his best form, whistle to whistle. Lemen at right forwards, Assumption accounted for twelve points for the Easterners.

HIGH DEFEATS HOLY ROSARY.

Friday evening Assumption High basketball team won a hard fought game from Holy Rosary High of Detroit, the final score standing 14-13, in favor of Assumption. The first half was slow and uninteresting, easy shots by both teams going wide of the ring, and the score half ended 10-7, Assumption in the lead. In the last half both teams seemed to strike their stride. Assumption found difficulty in solving the Rosary defense, and failed to score a field goal, although Kline succeeded in three attempts at the foul line. Assumption defense kept Rosary far from the basket, and so they had to resort to long shots. Matterson at center scored twice, which with two fouls earned the score at 13 all. At this point the timer's whistle blew, and it was decided to play five minutes overtime. In this period Kline cinched the game by scoring via the foul line. The Red and white, White had two chances to score on fouls, but both trials fell short. Kline was high scorer for Assumption, with three baskets and three fouls. O'Leary scored five fouls out of eight attempts. The line-up:

'BIG' CLARKE A VISITOR HERE.

Justin J. Clarke, who visited us last Sunday, was a student here from 1894 to 1902. He was one of the best Athletes Assumption has ever produced. As a handball player he ranked among the foremost, but was better known because of his baseball ability. His record for throwing a baseball when he was 15 years old was 109 yds. From Assumption Clarke, known in athletic circles as Mag, graduated to the Southern League, and after a time there was recalled by the Cleveland team of the American League. He fought for seven years in the Majors, and then was sent to the Pacific Coast League. Later he came back to the National League and played with the Phillies. At present he is contracted to play with the Reading team of the American Association.
Last Friday evening the regular monthly meeting of the St. Francis Xavier's Foreign Missions Society was held in the library, and a very interesting program was presented. John Finnigan read a selection on 'Vocations to the Missions', and this was followed by an address by Fr. Pluard, who held the attention and interest of his audience with an account of his trip through the Leper Colony near Chatham N.B., the regular monthly meeting of the Trinity was also completed at this meeting for the Triduum, or three days of prayer, for the intention of vocations, which was so successfully held from March 11th to 13th inclusive, under the auspices of the Foreign Missions Society. After a few remarks from the President, Mr. Dillon, and a word or two from Fr. Muckle, the meeting was adjourned.

The regular meeting of the Blessed Mary Sodality was held last Sunday in the College Chapel, and the Reverend Director, Fr. Sharpe, addressed the students on the subject of Lenten Self-deny. At the conclusion of his discourse, which was most instructive and interesting, the Little Office was chanted, and the meeting adjourned. The attendance was not all that could have been desired, and the Sodality members are urged to be more regular in attending the meetings.

Tomorrow, St. Patrick's Day, will be a holiday, and if the fine weather of the past few days is still with us, we can expect to see quite a flock of baseballs lying around. The college orchestra, under the direction of Fr. Sharpe, is to play for the St. Patrick’s Day entertainment at St. Francis school, in the evening. The college’s program in honor of Ireland’s patron Saint will be held this evening in the gymnasium, and the address is to be delivered by William E. Dillon. It is expected that there will be several entertainers from Detroit on hand to make the program an interesting one.

Masses Desile, DeBaene, Hoey, and O'Shea are with us again, after four long weeks of confinement in the Infirmary, suffering from a well-known malady of swollen jaws, commonly called mumps.

Redmond "Why pronounce subtle, as subtle, when there is a b in it?"
Fr. Pluard "That reminds me of a story."
Redmond "Go ahead, Father, tell it."
Fr. Pluard "It's silent."
Fr. Forrestel "Louis, who is your favorite author?"
Resume "Cicero."
Fr. Forrestel "Cicero Sep."
ASSUMPTION DEFEATS WESTERN "U"

Saturday evening last, Assumption basket-ball quintette travelled to London where they met and defeated the Western University five 43-13. Assumption took an early lead and by using their five-man defense held it throughout the game. At the end of the first half, Assumption was leading by fifteen points and every man on the team had scored at least one basket. The referee was inclined to be lenient and the game was somewhat rough. During the second half, Western only scored one basket and that from outside the defense. The fast passing game of the visitors completely bewildered the Western five and forced them to the fastest pace they have been set to this season to keep in the game at all. It was a pretty game to watch and possibly if several of the Western players had been in better form the score might have been closer. Zott was the high scorer of the game having ten field baskets to his credit.

ASSUMPTION DEFEATED BY U. OF D., 27-12.

Assumption high weakened their chance for winning the Catholic League Cup; when they lost to U. of D. High last night, 27-12. The only hope left now is that on Friday night the Deo meer five trims U. of D. and thus put Assumption again on an equal basis with the Cubs. The game last night was hard fought, although U. of D. were superior in shooting and in passing. At the end of the first half the count stood 12-8, with U. of D. in the lead. In the second half the Deo meerers put on even more force and soon widened the margin by fancy shots from difficult positions. Assumption was able to score four field goals, while the Deo meerers collected eleven. Grimaldi was high scorer for the visitors with a total of 13 points. Grimaldi scored two baskets and two fouls for Assumption. The line-up:-

Mr. Wetmore Visits Assumption.

A very distinguished convert to the Catholic Church, Mr. Wetmore, associate editor of the Dublin Review, spoke at St. Alphonsus Hall last Thursday evening, giving a most interesting talk on, "Why I became a Catholic." The lecture was attended by the Arts Course of Assumption. On Friday Mr. Wetmore was a dinner-guest at the College, and was accompanied by Frs. Cote and Tobin.
