11-9-1922

The Weekly Assumption Collegian: Vol. 3: No. 6 (1922: Nov. 9)

Assumption College

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholar.uwindsor.ca/assumption-collegian

Part of the Public History Commons

Recommended Citation

https://scholar.uwindsor.ca/assumption-collegian/6

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Southwestern Ontario Digital Archive at Scholarship at UWindsor. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Weekly Assumption Collegian by an authorized administrator of Scholarship at UWindsor. For more information, please contact scholarship@uwindsor.ca.
FACULTY NOTES

The announcement that a new President has been appointed to succeed Father Muckle came as a sudden shock to the College authorities last Monday. To the deep regret of both staff and student, Father Muckle has been forced by poor health to give up his duties as superior for an indefinite time. Many who thought this to be only a rumour, will be surprised to hear that it is true.

The name of the new superior came as a surprise also. He is the Reverend Father Dillon former superior of St. Thomas College Houston, Texas. Father Dillon is a man who is probably entirely unknown to the students, but far otherwise to the priests of the house who have admired and respected him ever since the time when he first attended the old Basilian College at Wayco, Texas.

Father Dillon, a brother of Mr. Joseph Dillon who was a master here in 1920-21, is a southerner, being born in Burlington, Texas. After his high school course in Wayco, he came to St. Michael's College Toronto, where he distinguished himself both as a student and an athlete. As an athlete our Superior-elect, was one of the best football players that ever attended St. Michael's. Not only was he only a big strong player but was also an exceptionally fast back-field man, the mainstay of St. Michael's team during the years of 1907-08. After graduating from Toronto University and from the Basilian Scholasticate, Father Dillon was ordained and sent to Houston where he became President of St. Thomas College in 1913. Needless to say everyone is looking forward to the arrival of the new Superior who is expected about the end of this week.

SOCIAL NOTES

On Thursday evening November the 3rd St. Paul's Dramatic Society held their third meeting of the season. Though not of the color of the previous programme, being pretty much of the impromptu character, still it was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. In the absence of the Reverend Director, our President, Mr. Jos. O'Donnell, very ably filled the chair. Among the highlights of the performance were the Installation speech of our new secretary, Mr. Walter McKenna, and the elocutionistic renditions of Mr. Dorsey, after which Mr. Remi Durand also very heartily sang for us his old favorite "My Gal". Last but not least with the harmonious syncopations of our dear "College Fi

The Philosophers grieve to note that both their flat - heads, Father Tigh and Father Sheridan have been suffering poor health during the past week. We wonder if the conduct of the philosophers on the flat is accountable for this. - Looks bad, gang!

Sunday November the 12th, the Rose Room of the College will be the scene of a joyous repast. The Omega Gamma Chi will then celebrate its anniversary by holding a grand banquet. This is expected to be one of the huge social successes of the year.
Assumption lose to M. A. C. Fresh

In the fastest and hardest fought game of the season A.C. was forced to succumb to the Capital City squad. During the first ten minutes of play the Freshmen, by a repeated attack of end runs and line plunges carried the oval from mid-field across A. C.'s line. They failed to kick the goal.

In the second period Assumption outplayed their opponents. A pass to Dick Sullivan netted thirty yards, which put the pig-skin on M. A. C.'s 20 yard line. Another pass which should have been complete was dropped behind the goal. The half ended, M.A.C. 6 - A. C. 0.

The third period proved no better for the Purple and White. They relied entirely on the forward pass attack during this quarter, but it failed. M. A. C. blocked a punt in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter which secured their final count. The contest was thrilling throughout and was nobody's game until the last few minutes of play.

Tai-Kuns defeat Annunciation High School.

Scoring a 13 - 0 victory over this squad the Tai-Kuns proved that they are able to cope with any of the teams listed in the Catholic High School League of Detroit. Irving Murphy was the star of the game while Casgrain's speed in the backfield counted a great deal in securing victory.

Monday witnessed another victory for the Tai-Kuns. Although crippled by the loss of several regulars and a complete lack of spirit they defeated the U. of D. High Reserves by a 18 - 0 count. McIntyre-Murphy and Petrinoulo are to be commended for their work in the backfield while Mahoney, Kramer and Whelihan were strong on defense.

The Warriors won a hard fought game from the Holy Name boys at Amherstburg last Saturday by the score of 16 - 12. Wilkinson was the most aggressive back for the Purple and White as he never failed to make brilliant gains. Dillon was the main barrier of defense on the forward wall.

Warriors and the Sacred Heart Seminary battled to a scoreless tie. Although Assumption should have scored twice they failed miserably. Wilkinson played an excellent game for the Warriors while Shock and Crowley proved the important factors of the Detroit eleven.

The Minims took an easy victory when they travelled to Dearborn and won 26 - 0. Kunts was an important factor in accounting for the large score while Tulley and Higgins also starred.

Since the College do not have another game until November 18th most of the first team squad are keeping in condition by playing Soccer.

Clipped from the Amherstburg Echo - "Mr. "Chubby" Lucier received a royal welcome when he came to town last Saturday. The town band was at the park to meet him as well as many of the fair sex whom he induced to root for the Warriors."

Rhetoric class was highly honoured in last Sunday's game by being represented by "Curly" McCarthy.
MoManus (lying in bed) my It's ten minutes after six. If Fr. Tighe does not call me pretty soon I'll be late for meditation.

Fr. Tighe: All the great philosophers, Plato, Aristotle, St. Augustine and St. Thomas are dead and I'm not feeling well myself.

Rock says: I call my girl Fonce, because she goes around a lot.
Josiah says: I call my girl Hanges, because she's something to adore.

1st. Farmer: Hello, Cy, how's your folks?
2nd. Farmer: Hello, how's your hogs?

Fr. Bondy (in three P): We aim to please.
Voice: Better take a little longer practice.

She: I want to marry a man with brains.
Kronk: I know, dear, but I believe that one should marry within one's own circle.

Hennes: My uncle fell off a sixty foot ladder and it never hurt him a bit.
Binder: How come?
Hennes: He fell off the bottom rung.

Fr. Tighe: (knocking at the bedroom door of "Judge" Larry) "Eight o'clock, Eight o'clock!"
Judge: (Sleepily) "Did you? Better call a Doctor."

Logical - "I wonder what that Chinaman is doing up so late?"
Waters - "Shirts I suppose."

Barry - "Why do they call bad actors "Hams"?
Berry - "I suppose because they are constantly associated with eggs."

TO HER FLAPPER FROM THE FLIPPER

By Oliver Goldsmith Jr.

Blessings on thee little dame, Picky miss, you're not to blame
With thy light frivolities, thy mates, thy crusts and teas,
With thy red lips, reddened more, smeared with lipstick from the store
With the makeup on thy face, and thy bobbled hair's fancy grace,
From my heart I give thee joy, Glad that I was born a boy.

TO THE FLIPPER BY THE FLAPPER

Blessings on the little gent. With thy last half dollar spent,
Buying cigarettes and gum, by you must have lost of fun.
With thy lip made broader still, along with that moustache like a frill
And thy red nose reddened more, born behind the cellar door,
You always must be in a whom, Glad that I was born a girl.

SShag has got acril in his hair, A Marcel wave so neat,
Say! talk about the flippin curls, I think he's got them beat.

Bidder: "Speaking to Algebra teacher) "I'm infatuated to you for all all I know."
McIntyre: "Don't mention such a frills tripe."

Hennes: "What's the difference between a hairdresser and a sculptor"
Haney: "That's easy: the one curls up and dyes and the other makes faces and busts."
Minims Tie Dearborn 6-6

In a close game on a rain-soaked field the Minims succeeded in holding their own against the much heavier team of the Sacred Heart School of Dearborn. The visitors made their touch down on a pass while the Minis scored on line plunges. Davis, Higgins, and Moshier starred for the Purple and White.

that Jones had returned from the seashore with the same tired expression that he wore when he started.

What's the matter "Bill"? asked a friend. "I thought you went away for a change and a rest."

I did but the waiters got the change and the landlord the rest.

Mr. Fury; 'I'm quite a near neighbour of yours now; I'm living just across the river.'

Josli: "Indeed! I hope you'll drop in some day."

Josh: "I saw you one day last summer; I was driving past your place and you were milking a cow."

Phelan: "Where was that?"

Josh: "A little past the center.

Banks; Mr. Interlocuter I don't think we ought to let Bones in the Minstrel show"

Interlocuter; "Why not Banks?"

Banks; "His mother-in-law has the mumps and she may give them to him."

Bones; "Oh! that's alright my mother-in-law wouldn't give me anything."

When a streetcar sways from side to side, it is not necessarily full.

Pollari; "Why is a gallon jug like a lady's side-saddle?"

Rivard; "Because it holds a gall on it."

He; "What is the Taxi to Sing Sing"

Dunne; "It hasn't changed yet. "Bread and water."

"Do you play bridge?" she said to John Bull, as they came to the swollen brook.

Bricklin; "Signals IKE, ICE, hip!"

Rock; (on sidelines) "Why does he say 'hip'?"

Josh; "The other team are a bunch of bootleggers, and that's the way to get the drop on them.

La France says "Never judge a woman or an egg by external appearances."

It takes a master stroke to smooth down a rebellious school-boy.

Ed; "I ordered the waiter to cook a chicken so it would tickle my palate.

Red; "Did he?"

Ed; "Yes. He left the feathers on."

He washed her tears roll down her cheeks,

Over the paint without tarnish,

And slyly asked in accents shrill,

"Do you use Valspar varnish?"

Little Jack Horner stood on the corner

Watching the girls go by;

He said to a city; "Will you give me a kiss?"

And she gave him a punt in the eye.

PROHIBITION! - And yet the teacher says "Let us take the first case."

In the expression 'Pining earth to a girl;' the emphasis falls naturally on the first word.